Wikipedia U Thomas Leitch,2014-11-01 Explores the battle between the top down authority traditionally ascribed to experts and scholars and the bottom up authority exemplified by Wikipedia Since its launch in 2001 Wikipedia has been a lightning rod for debates about knowledge and traditional authority It has come under particular scrutiny from publishers of print encyclopedias and college professors who are skeptical about whether a crowd sourced encyclopedia in which most entries are subject to potentially endless reviewing and editing by anonymous collaborators whose credentials cannot be established can ever truly be accurate or authoritative In Wikipedia U Thomas Leitch argues that the assumptions these critics make about accuracy and authority are themselves open to debate After all academics are expected both to consult the latest research and to return to the earliest sources in their field each of which has its own authority And when teachers encourage students to master information so that they can question it independently their ultimate goal is to create a new generation of thinkers and makers whose authority will ultimately supplant their own Wikipedia U offers vital new lessons about the nature of authority and the opportunities and challenges of Web 2 0 Leitch regards Wikipedia as an ideal instrument for probing the central assumptions behind liberal education making it more than merely as one of its severest critics has charged the encyclopedia game played online

Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Lorens Holm, 2022-09-30 Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan Shadowing the Public Realm methodically outlines key concepts in psychoanalytic discourse by reading them against key modern and post modern architects It begins with what is arguably the central concept for each discipline by putting the unconscious in a dialectic relation to space Each subsequent chapter begins with a detail in architectural discourse a kind of provocation that anchors each excursion into the thought of Freud and Lacan The text is cyclical episodic and cloudlike rather than expository the intention is not simply to explain the concept of the unconscious but to different degrees perform it in the text The book offers powerful critiques of current planning practice which has no tools to address our attachment to places It concludes with powerful critiques of our incapacity to change the environmentally damaging ways we live our lives which is an effect of our incapacity to recognise the presence of the death drive in our nature The text is an extended thesis spanning the chapters that the field of the Other is the common grammar that organises subjects into civilisations which has consequences for how we treat the public realm in architecture politics and the city The field of the Other is a slightly different slice through the urban social world It shadows but does not correspond exactly to more familiar categories like private public inside outside figure ground or piazza boulevard Reading Architecture with Freud and Lacan will be an essential resource to anyone interested in how the environment we build is a reflection of our desire Psychoanalysis is one of the great humanist discourses of the 20th century and this book will be a valuable reference to the humanist in architects planners and social scientists whether they are students professionals or amateurs It will appeal to historians of the 20th century and to psychoanalysts and architects who are interested in how their respective discourses interdigitate with each other and with other discourses
