

19.2 Foreign Contacts Under the Tang Dynasty

Step 1: As your teacher plays the recording, follow along below.

Scene 1: In a Teahouse During the Tang Dynasty

Official Who Welcomes Foreign Contact:

Ahh. Life certainly has become more enjoyable now that we've reestablished contact with our foreign friends. I find sitting in chairs much more comfortable than sitting on the floor.

Official Who Rejects Foreign Contact:

You're always impressed with foreign gadgets and geegaws and never think about the problems they bring. Chairs might be more comfortable, but it cost me a fortune to redecorate my house! First, all my tables were too short. Then I had to raise the height of all my cabinets. And now I have dozens of floor cushions we don't use anymore. I can't give them away.

Welcoming Official: But look at all these delicious foods we didn't have before! My favorites are the garlic, peas, and spinach.

Rejecting Official: Garlic has certainly improved my chef's dishes. But spinach—they can take that back to whatever horrible place they found it.

Welcoming Official: Have you seen the splendid array of products we have in our shops now because of this foreign trade?

Yesterday I bought the most beautiful ivory box, and I see you have a new pearl ring on your finger. Where do you think that pearl comes from? Not from anywhere in China, I can assure you!

Rejecting Official: Hmph. Well, I guess some things are worthwhile. But think about the forms of so-called entertainment brought in by those foreigners. I don't know about you, but I just don't think it's quite right for women to be riding horses, much less playing polo.

Welcoming Official: Listen—do you hear that amazing music? That is being played on a pipa, the likes of which came all the way from Central Asia. In case you've forgotten, you couldn't have found anything like it here in China before we traded with "those foreigners." Doesn't that prove my point?

Rejecting Official: What was wrong with our musical instruments? Why do we need new ones?

Welcoming Official: Okay then, what about the new religions? I think it's fascinating to learn about different beliefs from Jews and Christians and Muslims. And Buddhism has become especially popular here over the years.

Rejecting Official: I just have some problems with the special treatment given to these new religions. For example, Buddhist monks and nuns don't have to pay taxes.

Welcoming Official: Come on now. Be fair. The Buddhists run good schools and hospitals, and I just stayed at one of their travelers' lodges. It was very nice.

Rejecting Official: Hmm. Do you think they need any floor cushions? Because I could get them a great deal....
