Together they constitute more than half of the world's population and such understanding may be a foundation for peace.

America and the Production of Islamic Truth in Uganda Yahya Sseremba, 2023-05-16 This book investigates the ways in which the war on terror has transformed the postcolonial state in Africa. Taking American intervention in Islamic education in Uganda as the entry point, the book demonstrates how state control over Islamic truth production and everyday Muslim life has increased. During the colonial period, the Muslims in Uganda were governed in two ways: partly as lesser citizens within the Christian-dominated civil sphere and partly as members of a distinct Muslim domain. In this domain, a local system of Islamic education developed with a degree of autonomy that reflected the limits of the colonial state in shaping the Muslim subject. In the subsequent postcolonial period, systems of patronage and clientelistic networks dominated, and Muslim leaders were co-opted by the state but without much real interference in the day-to-day lives of ordinary Muslims. However, as part of the war on terror, the US State Department seeks to bring the mechanisms of Islamic truth production, especially the madrasa, under direct state control and civil society scrutiny. This book argues that the Muslim domain as a separate entity is coming to an end as it is being absorbed into the civil sphere, unifying the state's domination of society. The book also analyzes local Ugandan Muslim initiatives to modernise and contextualize their own education and religion and how these initiatives are shaped by and transcend the dominant power. A thorough exploration of US foreign policy and Islamic education, this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Political Studies, African Studies, and Religious Studies.

Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil, 2012-05-03 Can non-Muslims be saved? And can those who are damned to Hell ever be redeemed? In Islam and the Fate of Others, Mohammad Hassan Khalil examines the writings of influential medieval and modern Muslim scholars on the controversial and consequential question of non-Muslim salvation. This is an illuminating study of four of the most prominent figures in the history of Islam: Ghazali, Ibn Arabi, Ibn Taymiyya, and Rashid Rida. Khalil demonstrates that though these paradigmatic figures tended to affirm the superiority of the Islamic message, they also envisioned a God of mercy and justice and a Paradise populated by Muslims and non-Muslims. Along the way, Khalil examines the writings of many other important writers, such as Ibn Qayyim al-Jawziyya, Mulla Sadra, Shah Waliullah of Delhi, Muhammad Ali of Lahore, James Robson Sayyid Qutb, Yusuf al-Qaradawi, Farid Esack, Reza Shah Kazemi, T. J. Winter, and Muhammad Legenhausen.

Why I Am Not a Muslim Ibn Warraq,2010-09-30 Those who practice the Muslim faith have resisted examinations of their religion They are extremely guarded about their religion and what they consider blasphemous acts by skeptical Muslims and non Muslims alike has only served to pique the world s curiosity This critical examination reveals an unflattering picture of the faith and its practitioners Nevertheless it is the truth something that has either been deliberately concealed by modern scholars or buried in obscure journals accessible only to a select few
