A Presentation on Reverse Charge & Joint Charge – Updated till 31-03-2013

Section 68 of Finance Act, 1994

• Sec 68 (2) provides legal backing for the levying of Service Tax under reverse charge mechanism. Sec 68 (2) is worded as follows:-

- "In respect of such taxable services as may be notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette, the service tax thereon shall be paid by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed at the rate specified in section 66B and all the provisions of this chapter shall apply to such person as if he is the person liable for paying the service tax in relation to such service.

Provided that the Central Government may notify the service and the extent of service tax which shall be payable by such person and the provisions of this chapter shall apply to such person to the extent so specified and the remaining part of the service tax shall be paid by the service provider."

Brief History of Reverse Charge

The Reverse Charge was introduced in Service Tax vide Budget of the year 2005-2006. At that point of time there was only one service which was covered under Reverse Charge. However, with the passage of time this list has been expanded and at present this list contains 11 services into it which covers both Reverse Charge and Partial Reverse Charge.

Notification No. 30/2012-ST, dated 20th June, 2012

In order to charge service tax under reverse charge mechanism the Central Government is required to provide the list of taxable service by the way of notification. The notification no. 30/2012-ST provides for the list of service that will be taxable under reverse charge mechanism.
