Foster,2012-08-21 Focusing on the ways in which female novelists have in their creative work challenged or scrutinised contemporary assumptions about their own sex this book s critical interest in women s fiction shows how mid nineteenth century women writers confront the conflict between the pressures of matrimonial ideologies and the often more attractive alternative of single or professional life In arguing that the tensions and dualities of their work represent the honest confrontation of their own ambivalence rather than attempted conformity to convention it calls for a fresh look at patterns of imaginative representation in Victorian women s literature Making extensive use of letters and non fiction this study relates the opinions expressed there to the themes and methods of the fictional narratives The first chapter outlines the social and ideological framework within which the authors were writing the subsequent five chapters deal with the individual novelists Craik Charlotte Bront Sewell Gaskell and Eliot examining the works of each and also pointing to the similarities between them thus suggesting a shared female voice Dealing with minor writers as well as better known figures it opens up new areas of critical investigation claiming not only that many nineteenth century female novelists have been undeservedly neglected but also that the major ones are further illuminated by being considered alongside their less familiar contemporaries

Male Domination, Female Revolt Ishaq Tijani,2009 This book investigates various forms of women s resistance to male domination as represented in Kuwaiti women s fiction Drawing on Marxist feminist literary theory it closely analyses selected texts published between 1953 and 2000 which reflect the effects of patriarchal culture and tradition on race class and gender relations in Kuwait and the Arabian Gulf region in general It argues that the selected texts portray the pre oil generations of Kuwaiti Arabian Gulf women born before or in the first half of the twentieth century as resistant and or revolutionary figures contrary to the common notion of their stereotypical passivity and submissiveness This book demonstrates how Kuwaiti women writers have used literature to work for and contribute to social change “The” Academy ,1889 Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1894
