Playgirl Magazine 1992 11:

Women's Periodicals in the United States Kathleen L. Endres, Therese Lueck, 1995-07-24 Consumer magazines aimed at women are as diverse as the market they serve Some are targeted to particular age groups while others are marketed to different socioeconomic groups These magazines are a reflection of the needs and interests of women and the place of women in American society Changes in these magazines mirror the changing interests of women the increased purchasing power of women and the willingness of advertisers and publishers to reach a female audience This reference book is a guide to women's consumer magazines published in the United States Included are profiles of 75 magazines read chiefly by women Each profile discusses the publication history and social context of the magazine and includes bibliographical references and a summary of publication statistics Some of the magazines included started in the 19th century and are no longer published Others have been available for more than a century while some originated in the last decade An introductory chapter discusses the history of U S consumer women's magazines and a chronology charts their growth from 1784 to the present

Advertising and the World Wide Web David W. Schumann, Esther Thorson, 1999-04-01 The chapters provide a wide ranging view of issues addressing how advertisers can proceed on the Internet and World Wide Web An initial chapter traces the development of Web advertising from its very beginnings as it was represented and discussed in the pages of Advertising Age Although there is a noticeable trend to define Web advertising by comparing it to traditional media it is clear that Web advertising just won't fit the old mold Keith Reinhard of DDB Needham actually articulates this linkage between the old and new in his invited chapter What the reader will encounter in Advertising and the World Wide Web is a solid conception of how Web advertising is different from anything that has come before There are numerous discussions on consumer and advertiser interactivity the role of Web advertising within larger campaigns audience segmentation and alternative Web based promotion formats The five sections cover definition and theory structure specific applications legal issues and the voice of the practitioner Although there remain a few nay sayers concerning the future of Web advertising the reader will be able to see just how incredibly high impact this new medium has become and the vast potential that it holds for future promotional endeavors

Thinking about Movies Peter Lehman, William Luhr, 2018-10-01 A complete introduction to analyzing and enjoying a wide variety of movies for film students and movie lovers alike Thinking About Movies Watching Questioning Enjoying Fourth Edition is a thorough overview of movie analysis designed to enlighten both students and enthusiasts and heighten their enjoyment of films Readers will delve into the process of thinking about movies critically and analytically and find how doing so can greatly enhance the pleasure of watching movies Divided roughly into two parts the book addresses film studies within the context of the dynamics of cinema before moving on to a broader analysis of the relationship of films to the larger social cultural and industrial issues informing them This updated fourth edition includes an entirely new section devoted to a complete analysis of the film adaptation of The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo along with many in depth discussions of important films such as Citizen Kane and Silence of the Lambs The chapter on television integrates a major expansion distinguishing between television in the digital era of the convergence of the entertainment and technology industries in comparison to the era of broadcast analogue television The final chapter places film within the current context of digital culture globalization and the powerful rise of China in film production and exhibition The authors clearly present various methodologies for analyzing movies and illustrate them with detailed examples and images from a wide range of films from cult classics to big budget award winning movies This helps viewers see new things in movies and also better understand and explain why they like some better than others Thinking About Movies Watching Questioning Enjoying Fourth Edition is ideal for film students immersed in the study of this important contemporary medium and art form as well as students and readers who have never taken a class on cinema before

Sexualised Masculinity John Mercer, Clarissa Smith, 2025-02-10 Sexualised Masculinity Men s Bodies in 21st Century Media Culture explores evolving portrayals of masculinity in contemporary media focusing on the increasing eroticisation of the male body This book examines how traditional and digital media from films and television to social media platforms and fashion have transformed the ways masculinity is represented and perceived Through a wide array of case studies it highlights how male bodies are now sites of erotic value challenging long standing norms and expectations By exploring both global and local media John Mercer and Clarissa Smith provide insights into the shifting landscape of gender and sexuality offering a critical perspective on how masculinity is consumed performed and commodified in today s world This book is essential for students and scholars in fields such as gender studies media studies cultural studies and social history and is particularly relevant for those interested in understanding the intersections of masculinity media and sexuality in the 21st century
