Playing To Win How Strategy Really Works:

Playing to Win A.G. Lafley, Roger L. Martin, 2013-02-05 A Wall Street Journal and Washington Post Bestseller A playbook for creating your company's winning strategy Strategy is not complex But it is hard It's hard because it forces people and organizations to make specific choices about their future something that doesn't happen in most companies Now two of today's best known business thinkers get to the heart of strategy explaining what it's for how to think about it why you need it and how to get it done And they use one of the most successful corporate turnarounds of the past century which they achieved together to prove their point A G Lafley former CEO of Procter Gamble in close partnership with strategic adviser Roger Martin doubled P G's sales quadrupled its profits and increased its market value by more than 100 billion in just ten years Now drawn from their years of experience at P G and the Rotman School of Management where Martin is dean this book shows how leaders in organizations of all sizes can guide everyday actions with larger strategic goals built around the clear essential elements that determine business success where to play and how to win The result is a playbook for winning Lafley and Martin have created a set of five essential strategic choices that when addressed in an integrated way will move you ahead of your competitors They are What is our winning aspiration Where will we play How will we win What capabilities must we have in place to win What management systems are required to support our choices The stories of how P G repeatedly won by applying this method to iconic brands such as Olay Bounty Gillette Swiffer and Febreze clearly illustrate how deciding on a strategic approach and then making the right choices to support it makes the difference between just playing the game and actually winning Playing to Win: How Strategy Really Works by A.G. Lafley & Roger L. Martin , Program Highlights Game changing choices that trounce the competition Why your goal must be winning not just playing well Choosing the right metrics to support your strategy Most companies aren't winning today not because of the economy rapid change or rising complexity It's because they confuse strategy with vision and don't make the critical decisions it takes to win Using the example of PandG's dramatic turnaround of its Olay skincare line A G Lafley and adviser Roger Martin prescribe a disciplined approach to five strategic choices First define your winning aspiration that is choose what you want to be the best at in PandG's case to be a leading skincare brand Then determine where you'll play PandG's mass market channel to a younger buyer This opens up your possibilities for being distinctive and helps you choose how to win PandG's unique products Then tap or develop the capabilities to deliver what your competitors cannot Lastly identify the management systems you'll need to maintain your winning position During A G Lafley's tenure as Chairman and CEO PandG's market value grew by over 100 billion making it one of the most valuable companies in the world Roger Martin is recognized as a leading thinker in the business community and advises the CEOs of several major global corporations The two are the authors of Playing to Win How Strategy Really Works Summary: Playing to Win BusinessNews Publishing, 2014-11-12 The must read summary of A G Lafley and Roger L Martin's book Playing to Win How Strategy Really Works This complete
