Ray Barker, Louis Fidge

Poem On Desert Personification:

Desert Voices Moneera Al-Ghadeer, 2009-05-30 The Bedouin or desert dwellers have a rich cultural heritage often expressed through music and poetry Here Moneera Al Ghadeer provides us with the first comparative reading of women s oral poetry from Saudi Arabia She examines women s lyrics of love desire mourning and grievance We come to understand Bedouin mores and most significantly the unique description of a desert that is consistently held to be infinite evocative stimulating and an eternal freedom As the first English translation and analysis of this poetry Desert Voices is both a gesture to preserving the oral poetic tradition of Bedouin women and a radical critique addressing the exclusion of their poetry from current academic literary studies The book provides invaluable material for reflection in the debates around oral culture and women s poetic composition while it translates presents and critically examines a genre which opens Arabic poetry and literature to contemporary theory and criticism

Focus on Writing Composition Ray Barker, Louis Fidge, 1999 The supporting Teacher Resource Books offer practical advice on organising and using the course and provide a comprehensive range of further teaching ideas that cover all links with the NLS

A Poetry of Presence Bernard I. Duffey, 1986 William Carlos Williams was an inventive writer never confined by any static genre or aesthetic postulate In this authoritative study Bernard Duffey recognizes that literary dynamism as he approaches the full breadth of Williams s work including his poetry prose fiction and drama as an interrelated and interdependent web of writing The result the first truly comprehensive examination of a major American author and his kinetic art will interest students and scholars of Williams American literature and modern poetry and criticism Central to Duffey s study is a critical framework based on Kenneth Burke s A Grammar of Motives and the perception of the poet as an agent working in relation to a scene and its content in this case the geographical and cultural locale that Williams clung to Williams's work Duffey argues was informed by the dramatic sense of himself as a literary actor seeking embodiment of a dynamic altering whole and his present condition of being Ultimately he stresses the writer was more engaged in expressing literary action than in forging literary objects Duffey amplifies this critical view through a close reading of specific works Examining Williams's principal writings in the lights that seem most immediate to them he tackles a variety of themes the pervasiveness of scene in In the American Grain and the fiction the role of agent or poetic person in Kora in Hell A Voyage to Paganry Paterson and Pictures from Brueghel the function of poetic agency in the short poems and of poetic action in Williams's drama

The Art of Poetry Shira Wolosky, 2008-09-19 In The Art of Poetry Shira Wolosky provides a dazzling introduction to an art whose emphasis on verbal music wordplay and dodging the merely literal makes it at once the most beguiling and most challenging of literary forms A uniquely comprehensive step by step introduction to poetic form The Art of Poetry moves progressively from smaller units such as the word line and image to larger features such as verse forms and voice In fourteen engaging beautifully written chapters Wolosky explores in depth how poetry does what it does while offering brilliant readings of some of the finest lyric poetry in the English and American traditions Both readers new to poetry and poetry veterans will be moved and enlightened as Wolosky interprets work by William Shakespeare John Donne William Blake William Wordsworth Emily Dickinson Robert Frost Sylvia Plath and others The book includes a superb two chapter discussion of the sonnet's form and history and represents the first poetry guide to introduce gender as a basic element of analysis In contrast to many existing guides which focus on selected formal aspects like metrics or present definitions and examples in a handbook format The Art of Poetry covers the full landscape of poetry's subtle art while showing readers how to comprehend a poetic text in all its dimensions Other special features include Wolosky's consideration of historical background for the developments she discusses and the way her book is designed to acquaint or reacquaint readers with the core of the lyric tradition in English Lively accessible and original The Art of Poetry will be a rich source of inspiration for students general readers and those who teach poetry

Desert Tracings 'Alqamah ibn 'Abadah, 1989-05 A skillful translation of six classical odes of pre Islamic Arabia

Structure and Meaning in Medieval Arabic and Persian Lyric Poetry Julie Meisami, 2003-09-02 This is the first comprehensive and comparative study of compositional and stylistic techniques in medieval Arabic and Persian lyric poetry Ranging over some seven countries it deals with works by over thirty poets in the Islamic world from Spain to present day Afghanistan and examines how this rich poetic traditions exhibits both continuity and development in the use of a wide variety of compositional strategies Discussing such topics as principles of structural organisation the use of rhetorical figures metaphor and images and providing detailed analyses of a large number of poetic texts it shows how structural and semantic features interacted to bring coherence and meaning to the individual poem It also examines works by the indigenous critics of poetry in both Arabic and Persian and demonstrates the critics awareness of and interest in the techniques which poets employed to construct poems which were both eloquent and meaningful Comparisons are also made with classical and medieval poetics in the west The book will be of interest not merely to specialists in the relevant fields but also to all those interested in pre modern poetry and poetics Gods in the Desert Glenn S. Holland,2009-07-16 Gods in the Desert explores the fascinating religious cultures of the ancient Near East From the mysterious pyramids tombs and temples of Egypt to the powerful heroes gods and legends of Mesopotamia Glenn Holland guides readers through the early religions that are the root of many of today s major faiths Holland compares the religions of ancient Egypt Mesopotamia and Syria Palestine including Israel and Judah from the Neolithic era through the conquest of Alexander the Great He provides a historical survey of each region then discusses the gods the rulers the afterlife and the worship rituals This accessible overview makes clear how these religions converged and diverged and are intimately connected to many of the religions we recognize today sometimes in surprising ways Space and Place in Jewish Studies Barbara E. Mann,2012-02-10 Scholars in the humanities have become increasingly interested in questions of how space is produced and perceived and they have found that this consideration of human geography greatly enriches our understanding of cultural history This spatial turn equally has the potential to revolutionize Jewish Studies complicating familiar notions of Jews as people of the Book displaced persons with only a common religious tradition and history to unite them Space and Place in Jewish Studies embraces these exciting critical developments by investigating what space has meant within Jewish culture and tradition and how notions of Jewish space diaspora and home continue to resonate within contemporary discourse bringing space to the foreground as a practical and analytical category Barbara Mann takes us on a journey from medieval Levantine trade routes to the Eastern European shtetl to the streets of contemporary New York introducing readers to the variety of ways in which Jews have historically formed communities and created a sense of place for themselves Combining cutting edge theory with rabbinics anthropology and literary analysis Mann offers a fresh take on the Jewish experience The Changing World of Contemporary South Asian Poetry in English Mitali P. Wong,M. Yousuf Saeed,2019-07-02 This collection uses a transnational approach to study contemporary English language poetry composed by poets of South Asian origin The poetry contains themes motifs and critiques of social changes and the contributors seek to encapsulate the continually changing environments that these contemporary poets write about The contributors show that English language poetry in South Asia is hybridized with imagery and figurative language adapted from the vernacular languages of South Asia The chapters examine women s issues concerns of marginalized groups such as the Dalit community and the people of Northeastern India social changes in Sri Lanka the changing society of Pakistan and the formation of the identity in the several nation states that resulted from the British colony of India
