The Fontane Workshop Petra S. McGillen,2019-07-25 Winner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Awarded by the MLA With an innovative approach that combines material media history media theory and literary poetics this book reconstructs the great German writer Theodor Fontane s creative process Petra McGillen follows Fontane into the engine room of his text production Analyzing a wealth of unexplored archival evidence which includes a collection of the author s 67 extant notebooks along with an array of other paper tools such as cardboard boxes envelopes and slips McGillen demonstrates how Fontane compiled his realist prose works That is he assembled them from premediated sources literally with scissors and glue in an extraordinarily inorganic and radically intertextual manner that turned writing into a process of ongoing remix By exploring the far reaching implications of Fontane

s creative practices for our understanding of his authorship originality and poetics this book opens up a completely new way to think about his works and by extension 19th century literary realism This conceptualization of authors notebooks as creative tools makes a substantial contribution to scholarship on the history of writing media in several disciplines from German studies and literary studies to media history and to our understanding of the relationship between mass media and literary creativity in the late 19th century

The Quick Guide to Simultaneous, Hybrid, and Blended Learning Douglas Fisher,Nancy Frey,John Almarode,Aleigha Henderson-Rosser,2021-03-03 What a year Twelve months and counting since COVID expanded stretched and blurred the boundaries of teaching and learning at least one thing has remained constant our commitment as educators to move learning forward It s just the context that keeps changing why Doug Fisher Nancy Frey John Almarode and Aleigha Henderson Rosser have created a follow up to The Distance Learning Playbook their all new Quick Guide to Simultaneous Hybrid and Blended Learning First to be clear simultaneous learning must not be an additive meaning we combine two entirely different approaches and double our workload That s unsustainable Instead we must extract integrate and implement what works best from both distance learning and face to face learning environments Then and only then Doug Nancy John and Aleigha insist can we maximize the learning opportunities for all of our students To that end The Quick Guide to Simultaneous Hybrid and Blended Learning describes how to Have clarity about the most important learning outcomes for our students This will help us decide what is best done asynchronously and what is best done with our Roomies and Zoomies Capitalize on the potential of asynchronous learning and use that valuable time to preview and review This way we can draw on evidence from these tasks to help us decide where to go next in our teaching and our students learning Utilize synchronous learning for collaborative learning and scaffolding of content skills and essential understandings In doing so we can collect additional evidence of students learning so that we provide feedback that moves learning forward Establish norms for combining synchronous and face to face environments in simultaneous learning Importantly we have to set up the environment for our Roomies and Zoomies to learn together Develop learning experiences and tasks that maximize learner engagement for all learners in all settings Focus on acceleration and learning recovery In other words no more deficit thinking Our students are where they are and there are specific things that we can do to ensure their learning Implement the guide s many resources strategies and templates None of us chose to be in a situation where some learners are physically in our classrooms while others attend virtually and remotely write Doug Nancy John and Aleigha However what we hope to convey is that we ve got this While the context is different the principles behind clarity planning high yield strategies and interventions student learning and assessment hold steady This is where The Quick Guide to Simultaneous Hybrid and Blended Learning will prove indispensable on this next leg of our journey

The Art of Mary Linwood Heidi A. Strobel, 2023-11-30 The Art of Mary Linwood is the first book on Leicester textile artist Mary Linwood 1755-1845 and catalogue of her work When British textile artist and gallery owner Mary Linwood died in 1845 just shy of 90 years old her estate was worth the equivalent of 5,199,822 in today's currency As someone who made but did not sell embroidered replicas of famous artworks after artists such as Gainsborough Reynolds Stubbs and Morland how did she accumulate so much money A pioneering woman in the male dominated art world of late Georgian Britain Linwood established her own London gallery in 1798 that featured copies of well known paintings by these popular artists Featuring props and specially designed rooms for her replicas she ensured that her visitors had an entertaining educational and kinetic tour similar to what Madame Tussaud would do one generation later The gallery s focus on picturesque painters provided her London visitors with an idyllic imaginary journey through the countryside Its emphasis on quintessentially British artists provided a unifying focus for a country that had recently emerged from the threat of Napoleonic invasion This book brings to the fore Linwood s gallery guides and previously unpublished letters to her contemporaries such as Birmingham inventor Matthew Boulton and Queen Charlotte It also includes the first and only catalogue of Linwood s extant and destroyed works By examining Linwood s replicas and their accompanying objects through the lens of material culture the book provides a much needed contribution to the scholarship on women and cultural agency in the early 19th century
