Course Code: MPS 506

Lecturer: Dr. Thomas Otieno Juma, PhD

Course Title: Theory and Methods of Political Inquiry

Days: Tue 2.00-5.00 pm

Introduction:

The course encourages reading, thinking, talking, and writing about how political science is political. The focus will be on Scientism of Politics. A Deliberate study on how Political Science approach is both behavioral and social. The goal in all of this is to gain a sense of perspective on what and how we learn in Political Science.

Throughout this course we will be focusing on five main learning objectives;

- i. Appreciating history - Understanding the present state, paying attention to the past.
- ii. Surveying the landscape –Political Science as a systematic study of all things political (countries-cities-corporations).
- iii. How study of politics uses methodological tools.
- iv. Thinking critically – Theories make us think about politics and evaluate it. Not all Political Scientists come to the same conclusions about politics. Making reasoned arguments about what we think and why.
- v. Communicating effectively - mastering all of the previous objectives won't get us very far if we can't communicate our knowledge and reasoned opinions to others through clear and concise communication.

Course Objectives;

The objective of this course is;

- To provide students with an empirical tool to research in Political Science.
- To learn how political scientists formulate research questions, develop theories to answer those questions, and use empirical techniques to test the validity of those theories.
- To learn how to formulate a theory and test for evidence.

Course Goals;

The major goal of this entire endeavor is to create knowledge about the world of politics using the scientific process. But specifically, the course will;

- Help lead the student to learn to understand Political Science Research
- Help the student become a better consumer of information (critical, analytical, and objective)
- Start you on the road to becoming a producer of scientific research on politics
