National Conference on Management of Modern Libraries (NACML) K. Shivananda Bhat, Mahabaleshwara Rao, Rekha D. Pai, 2014-07-15 With the advent of the information and communication technologies traditional library activities are undergoing transformation in a big way Modern library's collection includes a vast array of information resources: databases, electronic journals, e-books, digital images, institutional repositories, etc. To manage a modern library, library professionals need to have awareness and knowledge on management of electronic resources, federated and discovered tools for single click search, literature techniques, application of RFID and other technologies, user needs and knowledge on soft skills, etc. Keeping these perspectives and issues in mind, the National Conference on Management of Modern Libraries (NACML) was organized by SEARCH. The health science library in association with the department of Library and Information Science, Manipal University, Manipal. The main objective of the conference was to provide an opportunity to LIS professionals to explore the ways and means to manage the modern libraries where electronic resources are playing an important role in meeting the information needs of the users and to explore, discuss and share ideas and knowledge related to innovative modern library management systems to meet the needs of the changing environment. In five technical sessions under five different categories titled: Technologies for Management, Best Practice in Modern Libraries, digital libraries, and Role of Library Professionals in Management of Modern Libraries, held over the two days, total 51 papers were presented at the conference. Various challenges and issues related to management of modern libraries were discussed in the technical sessions and some of the authors shared the best practices of their libraries. The author highlighted the importance of digital libraries and stressed the needs of various skills to work in digital environment. The papers presented in the conference have been edited and brought out in the form of a conference proceedings.
