text's usability Selecting a Basal Reading Program Douglas P. Barnard, Robert W. Hetzel, 1989-01-28 This book capitalizes on the authors' longitudinal perspective in program development in approaching a K-12 reading strategy. The school administrator and classroom teacher will find the book's guidelines right to the point. They hit the key issues involved in selecting a reading program from forming workable and effective professional committees to conducting the essential evaluations. Anyone who has been through this process will recognize the wealth of expertise required to condense what could be a ponderous and arcane task into the coherent set of steps and procedures presented in this book. The graphs and tables are invaluable. They will prove enormously helpful in performing each of the tasks in program selections. The authors have set forth a process that should enable a school district to optimize the selection and applications of resources in order to maximize pupil learning opportunity. Practitioners will not be disappointed. Resources in Education, 1990-10 Research in Education, 1974

Ubiquitous Computing and Multimedia Applications G.S. Tomar, William I. Grosky, Tai-hoon Kim, Sabah Mohammed, Sanjoy Saha, 2010-09-10 Advanced Science and Technology Advanced Communication and Networking Information Security and Assurance Ubiquitous Computing and Multimedia Applications are conferences that attract many academic and industry professionals. The goal of these co-located conferences is to bring together researchers from academia and industry as well as practitioners to share ideas, problems, and solutions relating to the multifaceted aspects of advanced science and technology, advanced communication and networking, information security and assurance, ubiquitous computing, and multimedia applications. This co-located event included the following conferences: AST 2010 The second International Conference on Advanced Science and Technology; ACN 2010 The second International Conference on Advanced Communication and Networking; ISA 2010 The 4th International Conference on Information Security and Assurance; and UCMA 2010 The 2010 International Conference on Ubiquitous Computing and Multimedia Applications. We would like to express our gratitude to all of the authors of submitted papers and to all attendees for their contributions and participation. We believe in the need for continuing this undertaking in the future. We acknowledge the great effort of all the Chairs and the members of advisory boards and Program Committees of the above-listed events who selected 15% of over 1,000 submissions following a rigorous peer review process. Special thanks go to SERSC Science Engineering Research Support Society for supporting these co-located conferences.

Beyond Training Jack C. Richards, 1998-02-13 Beyond Training examines the nature of second language teacher development and how teachers' practices are influenced by their beliefs and principles. It seeks to move discussion of language teacher development beyond the level of training which reflects a technical view of specific teaching practices. Instead, it takes a more holistic approach to teacher development built on the notion of the teacher as critical and reflective thinker. The argument pursued throughout is that teacher education needs to engage teachers not merely in the mastery of techniques but in an exploration of the knowledge, beliefs, and attitudes that underly their teaching practices. Literacy Assessment and Intervention for Classroom Teachers Beverly DeVries,2017-07-05 The fourth edition of this comprehensive resource helps future and practicing teachers recognize and assess literacy problems while providing practical effective intervention strategies to help every student succeed The author thoroughly explores the major components of literacy providing an overview of pertinent research suggested methods and tools for diagnosis and assessment intervention strategies and activities and technology applications to increase students skills Discussions throughout focus on the needs of English learners offering appropriate instructional strategies and tailored teaching ideas to help both teachers and their students Several valuable appendices include assessment tools instructions and visuals for creating and implementing the book s more than 150 instructional strategies and activities and other resources The Reading Leadership Academy Guidebook ,2002 Presentations and resources about scientifically based reading research Cover Teaching College Writing to Diverse Student Populations Dana Ferris,2009-06-02 Statistical and anecdotal evidence documents that even states with relatively little ethnic or cultural diversity are beginning to notice and ask questions about long term resident immigrants in their classes As shifts in student population become more widespread there is an even greater need for second language specialists composition specialists program administrators and developers in colleges and universities to understand and adapt to the needs of the changing student audience s This book is designed as an introduction to the topic of diverse second language student audiences in U S post secondary education It is appropriate for those interested in working with students in academic settings especially those students who are transitioning from secondary to post secondary education It provides a coherent synthesis and summary not only of the scope and nature of the changes but of their practical implications for program administration course design and classroom instruction particularly for writing courses For pre service teachers and those new er to the field of working with L2 student writers it offers an accessible and focused look at the audience issues with many practical suggestions For teacher educators and administrators it offers a resource that can inform their own decision making Literacy Teacher Education Deborah G.
