In the Middle Teong Eng Tan, 2016-04-05 The French philosopher Gilles Deleuze remarked in his book Negotiations that Things and thoughts advance or grow out from the middle and that's where you have to get to work that's where everything unfolds This prompts the question How does an artist get to work in the middle of a process that is continuously becoming The thesis is an unfolding narrative of the author's attempt to experientially answer the question by way of an art practice leading to an examination of the issue of freedom freedom from attachments and freedom to create new possibilities with all for all The thesis offers a view that art practice exploring ways to break free from the bondage of the mind moments of freedom from oneself is spiritual practice is life practice

Dragging Away Lex Morgan Lancaster, 2022-08-08 In Dragging Away Lex Morgan Lancaster traces the formal and material innovations of contemporary queer and feminist artists showing how they use abstraction as a queering tactic for social and political ends Through a process Lancaster theorizes as a drag dragging past aesthetics into the present and reworking them while pulling their work away from direct representation these artists reimagine midcentury forms of abstraction and expose the violence of the tendency to reduce abstract form to a bodily sign or biographical symbolism Lancaster outlines how the geometric enamel objects grid paintings vibrant color and expansive installations of artists ranging from Ulrike Müller Nancy Brooks Brody and Lorna Simpson to Linda Besemer Sheila Pepe and Shinique Smith offer direct challenges to representational and categorical legibility In so doing Lancaster demonstrates that abstraction is not apolitical neutral or universal it is a form of social praxis that actively contributes to queer feminist critical race trans and crip politics
