Belgium hosts numerous diplomatic missions. These are either accredited to the Kingdom of Belgium or to one of the international organisations headquartered in Belgium. Their operation as well as the legal status and privileges and immunities of their members are essentially regulated by the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations dated 18 April 1961. It systematically reviews the limited number of legislative or regulatory provisions, the Government's practice set out inter alia in several circular notes communicated to the missions present in Belgium and additionally identifies the jurisprudence of courts and tribunals and highlights the possible deviations from the practice of the executive branch. Designed as a guide intended primarily for diplomatic missions established in Belgium, this handbook is also relevant for civil servants, judges, lawyers and bailiffs encountering questions of diplomatic law in Belgium as well as for students and researchers seeking information on national practice in this area of law.
