

We recommend you print this guide and bring it to class with you.

Congratulations you are enrolled in a Food Safety Manager Certification course.

Jurisdictions that require the FSM Certification also require 16 hours of training time. We have prepared this study guide for you to review prior to class so that your learning experience will be as enjoyable as possible. A lot of information is covered in the course and we have included a summary of the information in this study guide.

You can also find a lot of information on our website under <http://www.marylandfoodhandler.com/food-safety-definitions.php>

If this is your first time taking training course AND you are taking a one day training, you MUST study this guide before attending class. You MUST also bring the completed study questions with you to class and present to instructor. You will NOT receive a 16 hour training letter otherwise and any Pass Protection paid for will not be honored and no refunds will be issued.
