The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyobokey Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyobokey Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa The Law of Nations in Global History Charles Henry Alexandrowicz, 2017 The history and theory of international law have been transformed in recent years by post colonial and post imperial critiques of the universalistic claims of Western international law The origins of those critiques lie in the often overlooked work of the remarkable Polish British lawyer historian C H Alexandrowicz 1902-75 This volume collects Alexandrowicz's shorter historical writings on subjects from the law of nations in pre colonial India to the New International Economic Order of the 1970s and presents them as a challenging portrait of early modern and modern world history seen through the lens of the law of nations The book includes the first complete bibliography of Alexandrowicz's writings and the first biographical and critical introduction to his life and works It reveals the formative influence of his Polish roots and early work on canon law for his later scholarship undertaken in Madras 1951-61 and Sydney 1961-67 and the development of his thought regarding sovereignty statehood self determination and legal personality among many other topics still of urgent interest to international lawyers political theorists and global historians

Race in the Shadow of Law Eddie Bruce-Jones, 2016-12-01 Race in the Shadow of Law offers a critical legal analysis of European responses to institutional racism It draws connections between contemporary legal knowledge practices and colonial systems of thought arguing that many people of colour experience the law as a part of a racial problem rather than a solution to racial injustice Based on a critical legal ethnography of anti racism work in Europe and with an emphasis on the German context the book positions Black and anti racist perspectives at the centre rather than the margins of critically thinking through the intersection of race and law Combining this ethnography with comparative legal analysis discourse analysis and critical race theory the book develops a critical discussion of the European legal frameworks aimed at regulating racism and particularly institutional racism in policy and policing In linking this critique to the transformative potential of social movements however it goes on to examine the strategic and creative possibility of disrupting conventional modes of engaging and resisting law The Acquisition of Africa (1870-1914) Mieke van der Linden, 2016-10-05 Over recent decades the responsibility for the past actions of the European colonial powers in relation to their former colonies has been subject to a lively debate In this book the question of the responsibility under international law of former colonial States is addressed Such a legal responsibility would presuppose the violation of the international law that was applicable at the time of colonization In the Scramble for Africa during the Age of New Imperialism 1870 1914 European States and non State actors mainly used cession and protectorate treaties to acquire territorial sovereignty imperium and property rights over land dominium The question is raised whether Europeans did or did not on a systematic scale breach these treaties in the context of the acquisition of territory and the expansion of empire mainly through extending sovereignty rights and subsequently intervening in the internal affairs of African political entities
