The Library of John Quinn John Quinn, 1924 Economics for Humanity Mitsuaki Okabe, 2024-08-26 Economics is often referred to as the queen of social sciences This is because mainstream economics has been established as an elegant academic discipline by assuming mankind simply to be homo economicus an image of human beings showing interest in only material fulfilment and acting solely in his interest This book challenges this basic perception of human beings By replacing it with a more realistic and multifaceted human motive as supported by research in various academic disciplines the book tries to provide a novel and more plausible picture of human society Specifically the book takes in such human aspects as pursuing well being forming human networks and the realisation of potential of ability Thus if we try to better understand human motives and the society it becomes necessary to replace the conventional two sector market government social model with a more general and theoretically superior social model the three sector model consisting of market government non profit sectors This book demonstrates the validity of this new view by utilising basic principles of economic policy and social welfare analyses Moreover the book has introduced a newly developing practical philosophy in Japan over the last 50 years to achieve both individual well being and better human society

Nation, Volume I Paul Cundy, Jessica Yakeley, 2023-12-01 This book charts the ways in which psychoanalytic psychotherapy has been implemented developed and researched within the public sectors of twelve different countries around the world It discusses how psychoanalytic practitioners locally have responded to the challenge of evidence based practice For each country the authors describe How people can access talking therapies as part of the national healthcare system including a brief history of how this system has developed and the place of psychoanalytic psychotherapy inside outside of this system historically How clinicians train and qualify as a psychoanalytic practitioner and demographic profiles of their communities of psychoanalytic practice How evidence based practice has impacted the mental health system and in particular access to and provision of talking therapies e g through the development and implementation of treatment guidelines How outcome monitoring and reporting of access waiting times and recovery rates are used in the commissioning and provision of psychological therapies What is needed to secure a viable future for psychoanalytic psychotherapy The first of two volumes this book will be of great interest to all practicing psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists The chapters in these volumes were originally published as special issues of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

Critical Theories of Anti-Semitism Jonathan Judaken, 2024-06-04 Despite its persistence and viciousness anti-Semitism remains undertheorized in comparison with other forms of racism and discrimination How should anti-Semitism be defined What are its underlying causes Why do anti-Semites target Jews In what ways has Judeophobia changed over time What are the continuities and disconnects between medieval anti-Judaism and the Holocaust How does criticism of the state of Israel relate to anti-Semitism And how can social theory illuminate the upsurge in attacks on Jews today Considering these questions and many more this book is at once a philosophical reflection on key problems in the analysis of anti-Semitism and a history of its leading theories and theorists Jonathan Judaken explores the methodological and conceptual issues that have vexed the study of Judeophobia and calls for a reconsideration of the definitions categories and narratives that underpin overarching explanations He traces how a range of thinkers have wrestled with these challenges examining the theories of Jean-Paul Sartre the Frankfurt School Hannah Arendt and Jean-François Lyotard alongside the works of sociologists Talcott Parsons and Zygmunt Bauman and historians Leon Poliakov and George Mosse Judaken argues against claims about the uniqueness of Judeophobia demonstrating how it is entangled with other racisms Islamophobia Negrophobia and xenophobia Critical Theories of Anti-Semitism not only urges readers to question how they think about Judeophobia but also draws them into conversation with a range of leading thinkers whose insights are sorely needed in this perilous moment

The Historical

Jesus Gerd Theissen, Annette Merz, Comprehensively detailing the sources for our knowledge of Jesus Theissen and Merz fully explore the historical and social context of Jesus and his activity They then unfold what we can know about Jesus characteristics as a charismatic teacher a Jewish prophet a healer a teller of parables and an ethical teacher Finally they examine closely the historical question surrounding Jesus last supper his violent death the accounts of Easter and the beginnings of Christology      Betweenity Judy Gammelgaard,2018-09-03 From its inception psychoanalysis has sought to effect a cure through the therapeutic relationship between analyst and analysand Betweenity looks at what happens when the established framework of the psychoanalytic process is challenged by those with borderline personalities In this book Judy Gammelgaard looks at how we might understand the analysand who is unable to engage with therapy and how we might bring them to a point where they are able to do so Areas of discussion include the border between psychiatry and psychoanalysis early mother child relationships the splitting of the ego This book will be essential reading for all psychoanalysts psychotherapists and practitioners wishing to learn more about working with borderline personality structures and disorders      Sanctorum Communio Dietrich Bonhoeffer,2009-07-01 Here is offered the complete text in translation annotated by the German and American editors The historical context is explained and textual commentary is provided in a Foreword and Afterword      Selected Essays in Criticism L. C. Knights,1981-06-04 This is a selection of essays by one of the most distinguished of modern literary critics L C Knights published as a companion volume to the selection of Professor Knights Shakespearean essays which appeared in 1979 The essays span almost four decades of critical work on authors as diverse as Marlowe George Herbert Clarendon and Henry James At the centre of each essay is an attempt to elicit some essential quality in the author or authors discussed Although each can be read as an isolated critical essay the different pieces are linked by a pervasive interest in the conditions social or personal out of which particular works emerged and in the way in which major works of the imagination are renewed as they are re interpreted in successive generations Throughout the underlying assumption is that literary criticism needs to be pure the result of direct exposure to particular works but that it cannot remain purely literary if only because the meaning of literature includes its effects on the lives and conduct of individual human beings      The Social Impact of Automating Translation Esther Monzó-Nebot,Vicenta Tasa-Fuster,2024-12-30 This collection critically examines the practical impacts of machine translation MT through the lens of an ethics of care It addresses the ideological issues in MT development linked to social hierarchies and explores the transformative potential of care ethics for more equitable technological progress The volume explores the ideological constructs behind MT as a labor saving technology how these constructs are embedded in both its development and social reception and how they manifest in biased outputs The chapters cover the cultural roots of translation automation its legal and political implications and the needs of various stakeholders These stakeholders include lay users Indigenous communities institutions educators and professionals in an increasingly multicultural society The book also addresses individuals who require translation daily with varying degrees of familiarity with their own translation needs and the tools available Through critical engagement with the social impacts of MT the book advocates for an epistemology of care to foster social equity and democratic values in technological progress This book will interest scholars in translation studies law and sociotechnology as well as practicing translators policymakers technologists and activists seeking ethical and inclusive approaches to machine translation and technological development

Religion Ralph L. Piedmont, Andrew Village, 2011-07-12 Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion publishes empirical and theoretical studies of religion from a wide range of disciplines and from all parts of the globe A special section is devoted to the issue of psychological type and religion and especially how psychological type can increase our understanding of Christian ministry Alongside this section are papers presenting studies on subjects such as civic participation suffering with God and spirituality Together these papers represent important contributions that advance theory and evidence in a number of different fields of contemporary relevance to the study of religion

The American Science of Politics Prof. Bernard Crick, Bernard Crick, 2006-10-19 Originally published between 1943 and 1969 the volumes in the International Library of Sociology Political Sociology set were written against a backdrop of rapid and radical political change Covering topics as wide ranging as European federalism democracy and dictatorship and voting these titles are as relevant today as when they were first published

Alternative perspectives on psychiatric classification Peter Zachar, Drozd St. Stoyanov, Massimiliano Aragona, Assen Jablensky, 2014-11-06 Many of the current debates about validity in psychiatry and psychology are predicated on the unexpected failure to validate commonly used diagnostic categories The recognition of this failure has resulted in what Thomas Kuhn calls a period of extraordinary science in which validation problems are given increased weight alternatives are proposed methodologies are debated and philosophical and historical analyses are seen as more relevant than usual In this important new book in the IPPP series a group of leading thinkers in psychiatry psychology and philosophy offer alternative perspectives that address both the scientific and clinical aspects of psychiatric validation emphasizing throughout their philosophical and historical considerations This is a book that all psychiatrists as well as philosophers with an interest in psychiatry will find thought provoking and valuable

Bordering Professor Anders Linde-Laursen, 2012-11-28 What is a border This seemingly simple question is here answered via a multidisciplinary study of the cultural geographic and historic existence of borders and the ways that they have shaped our world Using the Danish Swedish border to illustrate the actions of groups and individuals engaged in bordering since the 1600s this richly theoretical discussion highlights the complexities of political and cultural identity processes Comparative perspectives are brought together to produce a thoughtful analysis of how such processes function and of how borders work on both an imagined nationhood and experiential personal level The author also examines how throughout history people have lived with and influenced or been influenced by borders why some borders remain uncontested while others repeatedly provoke cross border conflicts and how today's bordering processes may be deliberately manipulated
