Philip Hsu,Yu-Shan Wu,Suisheng Zhao,2012-05-23 This book examines the development model that has driven China s economic success and looks at how it differs from the Washington Consensus China s Development Model CDM is examined with a view to answering a central question given China s peculiar matrix of a socialist party state juxtaposed with economic internationalization and marketization what are the underlying dynamics and the distinctive features of the economic and political legal social dimensions of the CDM and how do we properly characterize their interrelations The chapters further analyse to what extent and under what circumstances is China s development model sustainable and to what degree is it readily applicable to other developing countries Based on their findings in this volume the authors conclude that the defining feature of the CDM s economic dimension is Janus faced state led growth and the political legal social dimension of the CDM is best characterized as adaptive post totalitarianism The contributors illustrate that the CDM s parameters are shown to be much less sustainable than the CDM s outcome in developmental performance and the extent to which the CDM can be applied to other late developers is subject to more qualifications than its sustainability A Companion to Metaphysics Jaegwon Kim,Ernest Sosa,Gary S. cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage s films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage s art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage s art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalized Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocular centrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophize in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realizing Deleuze s image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the quest of art as spiritual revelation this book not only addresses scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori
