Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary Schools: A Research-Based Approach

Cekiso, Madoda, Olifant, Florence, Mokhtari, Kouider, 2025-04-23 Teaching reading comprehension to English learners ELs in secondary schools presents unique challenges as these students must navigate the complexities of academic texts and the intricacies of language acquisition. Effective instruction requires a research-based approach that considers the diverse linguistic, cultural, and cognitive backgrounds of these learners. Recent studies highlight the importance of integrating strategies that build both language proficiency and content knowledge, essential for helping ELs develop the skills needed to comprehend complex materials. Fostering metacognitive awareness through strategies like summarizing, questioning, and making connections can empower students to become active and strategic readers. This approach recognizes the need for a supportive, inclusive classroom environment that encourages language development while promoting academic achievement in content areas. Further research may help educators provide English learners with the tools to thrive as capable readers in secondary school. Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary School: A Research-Based Approach explores various aspects of teaching reading comprehension to English Second Language (ESL) learners in secondary schools. It examines current challenges and evidence-based strategies in reading comprehension. This book covers topics such as language learning, reading strategies, and teacher training, and is a useful resource for academicians, researchers, and scientists.

School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain, 2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools. It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research-informed practices on school science practical work. The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries. Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning, and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry-based learning, which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher-dominated to a learner-centered approach. The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work, contextual factors in the enactment of practical work, and professional development in teaching practical work. This book will be of great interest to academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy.

The Chemical News and Journal of Physical Science, 1914 Twenty-Twenty Hindsight Mosiuoa Sekese, 2013-05-16 Twenty twenty hindsight means perfect understanding of events only after they have happened. In his book Mosiuoa Sekese looks back on his life in the old and new

South Africa and gives his own perceptive interpretation of the past events Sekese suffered discrimination and prejudice under the old apartheid government as well as the new democratic regime His story is highly personal but provides the reader with unique insights into the social and educational challenges that South Africa continues to grapple with I had a quick read and I find the content heartbreaking but fascinating Especially as a white South African you are drawing me into a world that I always knew existed but which few people have the guts and conviction to paint into words Louise Heystek Emerton CEO Wordwise Khuluma Awethu Chemical News and Journal of Physical Science William Crookes,James H.
