This part is supplemented with an additional chapter on US Copyright Law Basics for Photographers written by Nancy E Wolff a practicing lawyer for more than twenty years Legal Counsel of the Picture Archive Council of America PACA and author of The Professional Photographer's Legal Handbook. The second part of the book introduces the reader into the necessary routine and workflow he or she should follow as a professional stock photographer. Testimonials referring to previous editions I've said it before and I'll say it again. This book is definitely THE classic on stock photography in the German language book market. fotograf.de. This is the book for people who are serious about making money with their own photos. The author himself is making a living from taking photos and selling them. So he knows what he is writing about. Robert Kneschke quite impressively shows in his book that stock photography is more than just trying to sell holiday and animal photos. Going far beyond such topics as choosing the right subject and technical details of the actual shooting the book gives professional advice on legal matters key wording as well as well grounded background information on how to eventually make money with your own photos. Theatres of Memory Raphael Samuel, 2012-09-11. When Theatres of Memory was first published in 1994 it transformed the debate about what is to be considered history and questioned the role of heritage that lies at the heart of every Western nation's obsession with the past. Today in the age of Downton Abbey and Mad Men we are once again conjuring historical fictions to make sense of our everyday lives. In this remarkable book Samuel looks at the many different ways we use the unofficial knowledge of the past. Considering such varied areas as the fashion for retrofitting the rise of family history the joys of collecting old photographs the allure of reenactment societies and televised adaptations of Dickens Samuel transforms our understanding of the uses of history. He shows us that history is a living practice something constantly being reassessed in the world around us.
