

Four candles

The first candle represents our grief.

The pain of losing you is intense.

It reminds us of the depth of our love for you.

This second candle represents our courage.

To confront our sorrow, to comfort each other,
to change our lives.

This third candle we light in your memory.

For the times we laughed, the times we cried,
the times we were angry with each other, the silly things you did, and for the caring and joy
you gave us.

This fourth candle we light for our love.

We light this candle that your light will always shine, that we will share your memories with our family and friends and cherish the special place in our hearts that is always be reserved for you. We thank you for the gift your living brought to each of us.

We love you. We remember you.

Readings For Candle Light Memorial Services:

Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses, and soulmates, friends, siblings, and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets, and general readings appropriate for men, women, or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors, and hospice, hospital, and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations, and each selection is indexed by author, title, and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film, novel, or celebrity's funeral, so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context. The Unitarian Register, 1925 The Suicide Funeral (or Memorial Service) Melinda Moore, Daniel A. Roberts, 2017-05-16 To our knowledge, nothing with The Suicide Funeral or Memorial Service Honoring Their Memory, Comforting Their Survivors, scope and depth has ever been published. This is an aid to anyone who will be called upon to do a funeral for the nearly 43,000 suicides in America each year. This book is designed to assist clergy, chaplains, and other faith leaders as they develop sermons and homilies for a funeral service. Its mandate is to help those searching for inspiration, even though they may feel confused or uncertain, undertaking such a daunting assignment. Those who plan and lead a funeral service may enable family and friends to understand and participate intentionally in their grief process. Clergy can have a significant impact on how people react to the suicide, as well as provide comfort and assistance to those left behind on their journey through grief. Your leadership will influence how the suicide's bereaved are treated by others in the days, weeks, and months following the death. Because suicide does not discriminate by race, socio-economic status, or religion, a broad range of faiths and denominations are represented in this book's sermons, services, and perspectives. Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1928 Pet Parents Coleen Ellis, 2011-07 When Coleen Ellis' beloved dog died in 2003, she discovered that she found no good resources to assist her with her grief. To help others in this situation, she opened the first standalone pet funeral home in the United States in Indianapolis. In this guidebook, she helps pet parents, veterinarians, death-care professionals, and others celebrate the special bonds we share with our animal companions. Using Common Worship: Times and Seasons part 1 David Kennedy, 2015-02-06 This invaluable guide helps all who plan worship to appreciate the rich possibilities and spiritual depth of the seasonal material for All Saints to Candlemas in Common Worship: Times and Seasons.
