Writing Effective Course

Assignments Elia Shabani Mligo,2017-05-11 Non degree and undergraduate students are both inexperienced essay writers who need close guidance to become effective writers One of the puzzles which they encounter at the college and university after reporting for studies is the course assignments offered to them by their lecturers which demand them to be critical thinkers and argumentative essay writers In most colleges and universities lecturers provide to students broad questions to answer in the form of essays either in group or individual assignments How should they turn the broad assignment questions provided to them by their lecturers into specific researchable topics for essays How should they handle literature in order to obtain valuable information to answer the provided question How should they construct an informed and convincing argument using the collected information as evidence This book concerns these and other related questions With its clear illustrations the book is designed to be a self study guide and to offer solutions to many struggling students in colleges and universities At the same time the book can be helpful for lecturers to instruct their students how to write effective course assignments in their respective courses Military Literature in the Medieval Roman World and Beyond ,2024-05-21

What do the mysterious Roman author Vegetius the Byzantine emperor Leo VI and the Chinese general Li Jing all have in common They are three of the dozens of authors across the medieval Mediterranean world and beyond who wrote works of military literature sometimes called military handbooks manuals or treatises This book brings together a multidisciplinary international team of scholars who present cutting edge essays on diverse aspects of medieval military literature While some chapters offer novel approaches to familiar authors like Vegetius some present research on under valued topics like Byzantine military illustrations and others provide holistic studies on subjects like early modern treatises they all move the discussion of medieval military literature forward Contributors are Michael B Charles Georgios Chatzelis Pierre Cosme Maxime Emion Immacolata Eramo Michael Fulton David Graff John Haldon Catharine Hof John Hosler Savvas Kyriakidis ukasz R ycki Katharina Schoneveld Georgios Theotokis Conor Whately Michael Whitby and Nadya Williams Introduction and proposes a new understanding of the real likenesses that we encounter in representational art      Reading Pakeha?

 Christina Stachurski, 2009 Aotearoa New Zealand a tiny Pacific country is of great interest to those engaged in postcolonial and literary studies throughout the world In all former colonies myths of national identity are vested with various interests Shifts in collective Pakeha or New Zealand European identity have been marked by the phenomenal popularity of three novels each at a time of massive social change Late colonialism anti imperialism and the collapse of the idea of a singular nation can be traced through the reception of John Mulgan's Man Alone 1939 Keri Hulme's The Bone People 1983 and Alan Duff's Once Were Warriors 1990 Yet close analysis of these three novels also reveals marginalization and silencing in claims to singular Pakeha identity and a linear development of settler acculturation Such a dynamic resonates with that of other settler cultures the similarities and differences telling in comparison Specifically Reading Pakeha Fiction and Identity in Aotearoa New Zealand explores how concepts of race and ethnicity intersect with those of gender sex and sexuality This book also asks whether Pakeha is still a meaningful term      The Academic's Handbook, Fourth Edition Lori A.

Classical Political Economy William O. Thweatt, 2013-03-09 William O Thweatt This book is the second in three surveys of the literature in the history of economic thought in the Kluwer Recent Economic Thought series The first book covering the pre classical literature has already been published a third on the neo classical period is planned for 1988 This middle book surveys the writings on classical political economy for the past 30 years or roughly since the publication of Joseph Schumpeter's 1954 monumental History of Economic Analysis Shortly after World War II the American Economic Association sponsored a Survey of Contemporary Economics 1949 That work covered 13 subdisciplines of economics and in 1952 a companion piece appeared in which surveys of 10 additional subdisciplines were presented As Bernard Haley editor of the second volume stated even though in the two volumes twenty three fields have been treated there remain some aspects of the subject that have not been reviewed Haley 1952 p v

Reading at the Limits of Poetic Form Jacob McGuinn, 2024-05-15 Pushing the boundaries of critical reading and the role of objects in literature How does literary objecthood contend with the challenge of writing objects that emerge at an extreme limit of material presence Jacob McGuinn delves into the ways literature writes this indeterminate presence in the context of pre and post 68 Paris a vital moment in the history of criticism The works of poet Paul Celan philosopher Theodor Adorno and writer Maurice Blanchot highlight how the complexities of reading such a dematerialized object are part of the indeterminacy of material itself Indeterminate objects glass snow walls screens are subjects Celan describes as existing in meridian space while for Adorno and Blanchot criticism not only responds to this indeterminacy but also takes it as its condition Reading at the Limits of Poetic Form Dematerialization in Adorno Blanchot and Celan shows how these readings simultaneously limit the object of criticism and outline alternative ways of thinking that lie between the models of critical formalism and historicism ultimately revealing the possible materiality of literature in unrealized history incomplete politics and nondetermining thinking

Converts to the Real Edward Baring, 2019-05-01 In the most wide ranging history of phenomenology since Herbert Spiegelberg s The Phenomenological Movement over fifty years ago Baring uncovers a new and unexpected force Catholic intellectuals behind the growth of phenomenology in the early twentieth century and makes the case for the movement s catalytic intellectual and social impact Of all modern schools of thought phenomenology has the strongest claim to the mantle of continental philosophy In the first half of the twentieth century phenomenology expanded from a few German towns into a movement spanning Europe Edward Baring shows that credit for this prodigious growth goes to a surprising group of early enthusiasts Catholic intellectuals Placing phenomenology in historical context Baring reveals the enduring influence of Catholicism in twentieth century intellectual thought Converts to the Real argues that Catholic scholars allied with phenomenology because they thought it mapped a path out of modern idealism which they associated with Protestantism and secularization and back to Catholic metaphysics Seeing in this unfulfilled promise a bridge to Europe s secular academy Catholics set to work extending phenomenology s reach writing many of the first phenomenological publications in languages other than German and organizing the first international conferences on phenomenology The Church even helped rescue Edmund Husserl s papers from Nazi Germany in 1938 But phenomenology proved to be an unreliable ally and in debates over its meaning and development Catholic intellectuals contemplated the ways it might threaten the faith As a result Catholics showed that phenomenology could be useful for secular projects and encouraged its adoption by the philosophical establishment in countries across Europe and beyond Baring traces the resonances of these Catholic debates in postwar Europe From existentialism through the phenomenology of Paul Ricoeur and Maurice Merleau Ponty to the speculative realism of the present European thought bears the mark of Catholicism the original continental philosophy      Reading Media Theory Brett Mills, David M. Barlow, 2014-06-11 What does the Frankfurt School have to say about the creative industries Does the spread of Google prove we now live in an information society How is Madonna an example of postmodernism How new is new media Does the power of Facebook mean we're all media makers now This groundbreaking volume part reader part textbook helps you to engage thoroughly with some of the major voices that have come to define the landscape of theory in media studies from the public sphere to postmodernism from mass communication theory to media effects from production to reception and beyond But much more than this by providing assistance and questions directly alongside the readings it crucially helps you develop the skills necessary to become a critical informed and analytical reader Each reading is supported on the facing page by author annotations which provide comments dissect the arguments explain key ideas and terminology make references to other relevant material and pose questions that emerge from the text Key features Opening chapters What is theory and What is reading bring alive the importance of both as key parts of media scholarship Pre reading substantial Introductory sections set each text and its author in context and show the relevance of the reading to contemporary culture Post reading Reflection sections summarise each reading's key points and suggests further areas to explore and think about 4 types of annotations help you engage with the reading context content structure and writing style as well as questions to provoke further thought Split into 4 sections Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context New to the second edition New chapters on New Media and Audiences as Producers Reading Media Theory will assist you in developing close reading and analytic skills It will also increase your ability to outline key theories and debates assess different case studies critically link theoretical approaches to a particular historical context and to structure and present an argument As such it will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects      Catalog of Copyright Entries.
