The Literary Digest International Book Review, 1926 Crusoe's Footprints Patrick Brantlinger, 2013-02-01 Cultural Studies has emerged in British and American higher education as a movement that challenges the traditional humanities and social science disciplines Influenced by the New Left feminism and poststructuralist literary theory cultural studies seeks to analyze everyday life and the social construction of subjectivities Crusoe's Footprints encompasses the movement of many colleges and universities in the 1960s towards such interdisciplinary and radical programs as American Studies Women's Studies and Afro American Studies Brantlinger also examines the role of feminist criticism which has been particularly crucial in both Britain and the U S

Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen, Steen Bille Jørgensen, Margaret R. Higonnet, 2022-03-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount

Powers of the Real Diane Wei Lewis, 2021-03-01 Powers of the Real analyzes the cultural politics of cinema's persuasive sensory realism in interwar Japan Examining cultural criticism art news media literature and film Diane Wei Lewis shows how representations of women and signifiers of femininity were used to characterize new forms of pleasure and fantasy enabled by consumer culture and technological media Drawing on a rich variety of sources she analyzes the role that images of women played in articulating the new expressions of identity behavior and affiliation produced by cinema and consumer capitalism In the process Lewis traces new discourses on the technological mediation of emotion to the 1923 Great Kanto Earthquake and postquake mass media boom The earthquake transformed the Japanese film industry and lent urgency to debates surrounding cinema s ability to reach a mass audience and shape public sentiment while the rise of consumer culture contributed to alarm over rampant materialism and feminization Demonstrating how ideas about emotion and sexual difference played a crucial role in popular discourse on cinema s reach and its sensory affective powers Powers of the Real offers new perspectives on media history the commodification of intimacy and emotion film realism and gender politics in the age of the mass society in Japan
