Inconsistent returns.	In singles, reluctant to go to the net. In doubles, understands basic positioning, comfortable only with the forehand volley; backhand volley and overhead.	Incomplete service motion. Toss is inconsistent. Double faults are common.
2.5	Can rally consistently to balls in a row, especially on the forehand, with an arched trajectory over the net when the objective is to hit to partner at moderate speed. Can control the direction of the ball both in singles and doubles, when receiving a serve of moderate pace.	Very consistent on forehand volley with easy balls. Inconsistent on backhand volley. Overall has difficulty with low level easy balls. Can smash easy balls.	Full motion on both serves. Able to achieve more than 50% success on second serve. Second serve much slower than first serve.
3.5	Able to move the opponent around the court harder when receiving balls. Can execute approach shots with some consistency (more than 50%).	Can return fast serves or defend serves with defensive actions. Can play second serve. Can vary with pace or directional control. Can approach the net in doubles.	Becoming confident at net. Confident BH volley but still hits BH volley. General difficulty in putting volleys away. Can handle volleys and overheads that require moderate movement.	Can vary the speed or direction of first serve. Can direct the second serve to the opponent's weakness without double faulting on a regular basis.
4.0	Able to develop points with some consistency by using a reliable combination of shots. Erratic when attempting a quality shot when receiving fast or wide balls, and when attempting passing shots.	Difficulty in returning spin serves and very fast serve. On moderately paced serves, can construct the point through hitting a good shot or exploiting an opponent's weakness. In doubles, can vary returns effectively on moderately paced serves.	In singles, comfortable at following an approach shot to the net in doubles. Comfortable receiving a variety of balls and converting to offensive. Can handle back on break returns of serves. Able to put away easy overheads.	Can vary the speed and direction of the first serve. Uses spin.
4.5	Can use a variety of spins. Beginning to develop a dominant shot or good steadiness.	Off first serves, can defend consistently but very inconsistent (less than 50%) when attempting an aggressive return.	When coming to the net after serving, consistently able to put the first volley in play but without pace or depth; however, inconsistent when trying to volley powerful or angled returns.	Aggressive first serve, winner and spin. On second serve frequently hits with good depth and placement without double faults. Can serve and volley off first serves in doubles, but exhibits some inconsistency.
5.0	Able to maintain a consistent rally, 10 balls in a row on strokes or has a dominant shot. Periodically succeeds (50%) when attempting a quality shot when receiving fast or wide balls, and in passing shot situations.	Periodically succeeds, defend at service line. Can play off first serve using dominant stroke (forehand or backhand). In doubles, can return at the feet of serve and volleyer.	In doubles, after the serve, has a good deep crosscourt volley. Overhead can be hit from almost any position.	First serve can win points. Second serve can prevent the opponent from attacking. Serve and volleys on first serves in doubles with consistency.
5.5	This player has developed a gamestyle which is recognizable as an all court player, an aggressive baseliner, a serve and volleyer, or a retriever. Has developed good anticipation either technically (can read toss on serve, body position...), or can consistently effectively against a hard ball, wide ball or in passing shot situations. Capable of competing in "open" category provincial level tournaments. Ability to use specific shots in order to exploit opponent's weakness: drop shot, lob, angle, moonball etc.
6.0	These players will generally not need a rating. Rankings or past rankings will speak for themselves.
7.0	The 6.5 player has extensive international "open" level tournament experience at the entry level (not yet a Challenger or Satellite level).
	The 7.0 is a world class professional tennis player.
