Negotiation Skills Training Manual Water:

Water Diplomacy in Action Shafiqul Islam, Kaveh Madani, 2017-01-02 Complex water problems cannot be resolved by numbers or narratives Contingent and negotiated approaches are necessary for actionable outcome In the face of a constantly changing array of interconnected water issues that cross multiple boundaries the challenge is how to translate solutions that emerge from science and technology into the context of real world policy and politics Water Diplomacy in Action addresses this task by synthesizing two emerging ideas complexity science and negotiation theory to understand and manage risks and opportunities for an uncertain water future Rooted in the ideas of complexity science and mutual gains negotiation this edited volume shows why traditional systems engineering approaches may not work for complex problems what emerging tools and techniques are needed and how these are used to resolve complex water problems From conflict to collaboration in natural resource management Röttinger, L., Janáen, A., Knupp, C., Griestop, L., Natural resource management is closely linked to conflict management prevention and resolution Managing natural resources involves reconciling diverging interests that often lead to conflict which can undermine management institutions and lead to exploitation environmental destruction and deteriorating livelihoods If conflicts turn violent they can rip apart the entire fabric of society Thus managing conflicts in a peaceful manner is decisive not only for successful and sustainable resource management but for societal stability in general Despite this connection the knowledge and experience gained in the fields of conflict transformation and peacebuilding in the last decades are often not used by natural resource managers One reason is that this knowledge has not been translated into user friendly resources that can be easily understood by practitioners without prior experience in these fields This handbook and toolkit helps fill this gap providing an orientation to the issues and a suite of practical exercises and tools to support participatory processes Case Based Research in Tourism, Travel, and Hospitality Marianna Sigala, Marcela Fang, Anastasia Yeark, Julia N. Albrecht, Oscar Vorobjovas-Pinta, 2024-05-07 This book consolidates case study based research in tourism travel hospitality and events under one roof It aims to consolidate cutting edge case study based research within the wider tourism industry that investigates topical and contemporary industry challenges and practices which in turn can help tourism scholars to build new theory for advancing tourism research and educational practices Case study based research is well recognised for its ability to develop theories and to support pedagogical aims This book explores the repercussions of COVID 19 on tourism in how this has magnified the need and the urgency to use case based research and teaching COVID 19 has accelerated profound changes in the tourism industry that are demonstrated in transformed consumer profiles and behaviours industry structures business models and operations and tourism labour markets Subsequently tourism educators providers and researchers are required to study and address the abovementioned changes by undertaking transformational tourism research that can challenge and shift existing theories and knowledge frontiers help industry and academia alike to reset new industry standards and 2 develop tourism graduates that meet the new industry requirements are resilient flexible and adaptable they possess transferable knowledge and skills that can solve real industry problems The aim of this book to meets the market gap of books focusing on case study based research and teaching and further expands to address the COVID 19 repercussions and opportunities for tourism research and case studies
