beauty even today to look like a Greek god is proverbial for human beauty In Beauty and the Gods Hugo Shakeshaft explores the relationship between the beautiful and divine in ancient Greece principally in the Archaic period ca 750-480 BCE Analysing evidence that ranges from poetry art and philosophical texts to architecture and the natural landscape Shakeshaft shows how ideas and experiences of beauty shaped Greek relations with the divine With a powerful call for the place of beauty and aesthetics in the writing of history Shakeshaft uncovers the cultural dialogue between beauty and the gods in a variety of contexts in the Archaic Greek world in forms of divine worship in poetry music and dance in attitudes to the natural environment and in architecture and art This early chapter of Greek history he argues holds an unrecognised key to understanding some long running threads in the histories of religion art and aesthetics from Plato's aesthetic theories to beauty's status in contemporary discourse Beauty's deep past and divine connection in ancient Greece can help us see beauty now in sharper focus
