Travel Writing from Black Australia

Robert Clarke, 2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginalized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement Walford's Guide to reference material. Albert John Walford,1995 Locating the Field Simon Coleman,Peter Collins,2020-09-09 Are reports of the death of conventional fieldwork in anthropology greatly exaggerated This book takes a critical look at the latest developments and key issues in fieldwork The nature of locality itself is problematic for both research subjects and fieldworkers on the grounds that it must now be maintained and represented in relation to widening and fragmenting social frames and networks Such developments have raised questions concerning the nature of ethnographic presence and scales of comparison From the social space of a cybercafe to cities in India the UK and South Africa among others this book features a wide range of ethnographic studies that provide new ways of looking at the concepts of locality and site It shows that rather than taking key fieldwork processes such as globalization and mobility for granted anthropologists are well placed to examine and critique the totalizing assumptions behind these notions The cultural & heritage guide for Nepal ,2025-09-24 Guide to Indian Periodical Literature ,1990 The Workings of Human Rights, Law and Justice Surya Subedi, QC,2022-04-21 Drawing on the personal experience of a leading international jurist this book provides insights into the workings of international law and human rights from a global perspective that transcends the traditional divide between the West and the East and the Global South and Global North The work follows the author s remarkable journey from a simple village in Nepal to becoming an international jurist acclaimed for his innovative academic and influential practical legal work and nomination for the Nobel Peace Prize It offers insights into the powers bearing on international policymaking the dynamics of human rights negotiations with governments and the effects of their outcomes on the lives of their citizens While much has been written on international human rights law this inspirational memoir casts a new light on the working of human rights law and justice through the eyes of a leading actor It provides a valuable contribution to the study of justice and human rights and the importance of individual action As such the book presents an accessible source for current debates around the development and effectiveness of international law and human rights and practices for decolonising these debates The book will provide inspiration and practical guidance for students academics international lawyers jurists and human rights advocates
