Newfoundland Modern Robert Mellin,2011 The architecture of Newfoundland typically evokes images of spare but colourful houses and outbuildings by the sea Newfoundland Modernreveals another dimension that challenges this impression In over 220 drawings and photographs Robert Mellin presents the development of architecture in the decades immediately following Newfoundland s 1949 union with Canada Newfoundland s wholehearted embrace of modern architecture in this era affected planning as well as the design of cultural facilities commercial and public buildings housing recreation educational facilities and places of worship and Premier Joseph Smallwood often relied on modern architecture to demonstrate the progress made by his administration Mellin explores the links between Smallwood and modern architecture revealing how Smallwood guided the development of numerous architectural projects He also looks at the work of two innovative local architects Frederick A Colbourne and Angus J Campbell showing how their architecture was influenced by their life long interest in art The first comprehensive work on an important period of architectural development in urban and rural Newfoundland Newfoundland Moderncomplements Mellin s award winning book on the outport of Tilting Fogo Island

Leave no child behind UNESCO,2022-06-20 To leave no child behind UNESCO developed the first global report of this scope onboys disengagement from education bringing together qualitative and quantitativevidence from over 140 countries This report provides an overview on the global situation on boys disengagement from and disadvantage in education. It identifies factors influencing boys' participation, progression and learning outcomes in education. It also analyses responses by governments and partners and examines promising policies and programmes. Finally, it includes recommendations on how to engage boys with education and address disadvantage. While girls continue to face severe disadvantages and inequalities in education, the report shows that boys in many countries are at greater risk than girls of repeating grades, failing to complete different education levels and having poorer learning outcomes in school. No less than 132 million boys of primary and secondary school age are out of school. They urgently require support. As this report shows, supporting boys does not mean that girls lose out and vice versa. Addressing boys' disengagement not only benefits boys' learning, employment opportunities, income and well-being; it is also highly beneficial for achieving gender equality and desirable economic, social and health outcomes.

New York Magazine, 1997-04-28.
