We Can Do It Michael T. Gengler, 2018-08-21 This book tells of the challenges faced by white and black school administrators teachers parents and students as Alachua County Florida moved from segregated schools to a single unitary school system After Brown v Board of Education the South's separate white and black schools continued under lower court opinions provided black students could choose to go to white schools

Not until 1968 did the NAACP Legal Defense Fund convince the Supreme Court to end dual school systems. Almost fifty years later, African Americans in Alachua County remain divided over that outcome. A unique study including extensive interviews, We Can Do It asks important questions among them: How did both races without precedent work together to create desegregated schools? What conflicts arose and how were they resolved or not? How was the community affected? And at a time when resegregation and persistent white-black achievement gaps continue to challenge public schools, what lessons can we learn from the generation that desegregated our schools?

The Bidens Ben Schreckinger, 2021-09-21. A deeply reported exploration of Joe Biden as told through his extended family. Coming off of the 2020 election, THE BIDENS tells the Biden family story in full, from the secrets lurking in the deep recesses of Joe's family tree to his son Hunter's foreign deal-making spree and the Trump gang's ham-handed efforts to exploit it. On November 3, Americans did not just elect Joe Biden. They got a package deal. The tight-knit Biden family—siblings, children in laws and beyond—is coming right along with him. They are sure to play a defining role in his presidency just as they have in every other one of his endeavors. Inside you'll find these and other stories and revelations about the Biden family, including Joe's childhood, the stunning 1972 Senate upset engineered by his sister Valerie and the car accident that took the lives of his first wife and infant daughter soon after Joe's early years in the Senate and his role in the creation of the cozy Delaware Way of conducting politics. The Biden brothers' business escapades, including the '70s rock club rivalry that pitted Jim Biden against Jill's first husband and ended in a banking scandal. The Delaware lawman who oversaw an FBI investigation into Joe's 2007 campaign fundraising and now has Hunter in his sights. Hunter's surprisingly close friendship with his Fox News antagonist Tucker Carlson. What Steve Bannon really hoped to accomplish by giving the contents of the Laptop from Hell to the New York Post. New evidence that sheds light on the authenticity of Hunter's alleged computer files. Like the Kennedys before them, the Bidens are a tight-knit, idealistic Irish Catholic clan with good looks, dynastic ambitions, and serious personal problems. As THE BIDENS reveals, the best way to understand Joe Biden, his values, fears, and motives is to understand his family. Their Irish and not-so-Irish roots, their place in the Delaware pecking order, their dodgy business deals, and their personal struggles and triumphs alike.

Applying Model Cornerstone Assessments in K-12 Music Frederick Burrack, Kelly A. Parkes, 2018-06-19. Model Cornerstone Assessments (MCAs) that were developed for the National Core Arts Standards in Music are curriculum-embedded measures designed for music students to apply relevant knowledge and skills while demonstrating learning in the standards that define the artistic processes. They are meant to engage students in tasks authentic to a school's curriculum and honor the intent of the Music Performance Standards. They are created as models to allow for usefulness in a variety of curricular contexts and demographics. The intent of each MCA is to provide research-based assessment tasks that are specifically focused on the expected learning for the performance standards, with rubrics that have been tested for scoring consistency. Following substantial development and piloting in schools across the United States, this book provides a thorough background of the

MCAs and the confidence measures administered to guide implementation by teachers administrators and the educational community
