Reading American History Bruce A. VanSledright, 1996 Economics Made Fun N. Aydinonat, Jack Vromen, 2017-10-02 Best selling books such as Freakonomics and The Undercover Economist have paved the way for the flourishing economics made fun genre While books like these present economics as a strong and explanatory science the ongoing economic crisis has exposed the shortcomings of economics to the general public In the face of this crisis many people including well known economists such as Paul Krugman have started to express their doubts about whether economics is a success as a science As well as academic papers newspaper columns with a large audience have discussed the failure of economic to predict and explain ongoing trends The emerging picture is somewhat confusing economics made fun books present economics as a method of thinking that can successfully explain everyday and freaky phenomena On the other hand however economics seems to fail in addressing and explaining the most pressing matters related to the field of economics itself This book explores the confusion created by this contradictory picture of economics Could a science that cannot answer its own core questions really be used to explain the logic of everyday life This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Economic Methodology

Greetings! from Carl's Corner, Texas Lianne Cain, 2000-12 An ordinary Friday night out for dinner and dancing turned into a seven month journey that crisscrossed America When a school teacher met a truck driver worlds collided What began as an overnight trip to Texas ended at the Alamo but the road led through Texas New Mexico Arizona Ohio Pennsylvania and twenty seven other states The ride began in January and didn't end until July

Textbook of Medical Ethics Erich H. Loewy, 2013-06-29 When physicians in training enter their clinical years and first begin to become involved in clinical decision making they soon find that more than the technical data they had so carefully learned is involved Prior to that time of course they were aware that more than technology was involved in practicing medicine but here for the first time the reality is forcefully brought home It may be on the medical ward when a patient or a patient's relatives ask that no further treatment be given and that the patient be allowed to die it may be in ob gyn when a 4 or 5 month pregnant lady with two other children and just deserted by her husband pleads for an abortion it may be in the outpatient setting where patients unable to afford enough to eat cannot afford to buy antibiotics for their sick child or provide him or her with the recommended diet Whatever the setting students soon find themselves confronted with problems in which an answer is not given by the technical possibilities alone indeed students may have to face situations in which all things considered the use of these technical possibilities seems ill advised But choices need to be made Some of us may choose to hide behind a mastery of technology
