The Blackbird's Nest Jenny Schroedel, 2004 An introductory biography of the life of Saint Kevin an Irish boy who was awed by watching a blackbird's nest Seamus Heaney Helen Vendler, 1998 The most astute and eloquent critic of poetry at work today Michiko Kakutani New York Times A renowned American critic charts the creative evolution of the greatest Irish poet since Yeats If other books on Nobel laureate Seamus Heaney have dwelled on the biographical geographical and political aspects of his writing Helen Vendler looks squarely and deeply at his poetic art Tracing the eminent poet's development from his beginnings in Death of a Naturalist 1966 through The Spirit Level 1996 Seamus Heaney is an inspired and nuanced portrait of an Irish chronicler of public as well as private life whose work has given voice to his troubled times With characteristic discernment and eloquence Vendler considers an often neglected but crucial part of Heaney's evolving talent self revision Here we see how later poems return to the themes or genres of the earlier works and reconceive them in light of the poet's later attitudes or techniques Vendler surveys all of Heaney's efforts in the classical forms genre scene elegy sonnet parable confessional poem poem of perception and brings to light his aesthetic and moral attitudes Seamus Heaney's development as a poet is inextricably connected to the violent struggle that racked Northern Ireland during his lifetime Vendler shows how in each volume Heaney strived to find a precise language for the turbulence he was living through symbols adequate for our predicament as he once said The worldwide response to those discovered symbols suggests that their relevance extends far beyond their original context Calling All Saints Tom-Nicholas Costa, Brother Tom-Nicholas, 1998 This book tells the stories of 40 hard working men and women from all walks of life who became saints by doing small things in a great way for the love of God The author Brother Tom Nicholas is a lay brother in the Franciscan third order and serves as liturgical assistant at St James Episcopal church in South Pasadena California He always manages to bring home the modern message of each saint in a funny yet inspirational way From ex lawyers and soldiers to housewives herbalists and hair dressers each special story has something to make you smile maybe make you laugh and always make you think about the simple things we can all do to make a difference If you're looking for the patron saint of television a monthly meditation series or just a special book you can share with those you love Calling All Saints is for you Real Toads, Imaginary Gardens Paisley Rekdal, 2024-10-22 An innovative and accessible guide to writing and reading poetry by an acclaimed poet and beloved professor of poetry What makes reading a poem unlike reading anything else In Real Toads Imaginary Gardens acclaimed poet and teacher Paisley Rekdal demonstrates how to observe the building blocks of a poem including its diction form imagery and rhythm and construct an interpretation of its meaning Using guided close readings

Reading the Animal Text in the Landscape of the Damned Les

Mitchell, 2019-10-22 Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned looks at the diverse texts of our everyday world relating to nonhuman animals and examines the meanings we imbibe from them It describes ways in which we can explore such artefacts especially from the perspective of groups and individuals with little or no power This work understands the oppression of nonhuman animals as being part of a spectrum incorporating sexism racism xenophobia economic exploitation and other forms of oppression The enquiry includes physical landscapes the law womens rights history slavery language use economic coercion farming animal experimentation and much more Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned is an academic work but is accessible theoretically based but robustly practical and it encourages the reader to take this enquiry further for both themselves and for others

Moral Authority in Seamus Heaney and Geoffrey Hill Bridget Vincent, 2022-02-17 How do poems communicate moral ideas Can they express concepts in ways that are unique and impossible to replicate in other forms of writing This book explores these questions by turning to two of the late twentieth century s most important poets Seamus Heaney and Geoffrey Hill Their work shows that a poem can act as an example of a moral concept rather than simply a description or discussion of it Exploring these two poets via their shared preoccupation with poetry s moral exemplarity opens up new perspectives on their work The concept of exemplarity is shown to play an important role in these poets most significant preoccupations from moral complicity to the nature of lyric speech to literary influence to memorialisation responsibility and aesthetic autonomy Through this new analysis of poetry critical prose drama and archival materials this book offers a major new study of ethics in the later period of these two writers including recent underexplored posthumous works In turn the book also makes an important intervention in larger debates about literature and morality and about the field of ethical criticism itself this is the first book length study to expand ethical criticism beyond its customary narrative focus The ethical criticism of fiction is often an exercise in methodological advocacy urging the use of more literary examples in moral philosophy As this book shows including poetry among these examples introduces new lyric inflected caveats about the use of literature as a form of moral example caveats which remain invisible in narrative centred ethical criticism
