Out Of Lonely Places:

In a Lonely Place Dorothy B. Hughes, 2017-08-15 A classic California noir with a feminist twist this prescient 1947 novel exposed misogyny in post World War II American society making it far ahead of its time Los Angeles in the late 1940s is a city of promise and prosperity but not for former fighter pilot Dix Steele To his mind nothing has come close to matching that feeling of power and exhilaration and freedom that came with loneliness in the sky He prowls the foggy city night bus stops and stretches of darkened beaches and movie houses just emptying out seeking solitary young women His funds are running out and his frustrations are growing Where is the good life he was promised Why does he always get a raw deal Then he hooks up with his old Air Corps buddy Brub now working for the LAPD who just happens to be on the trail of the strangler who's been terrorizing the women of the city for months Written with controlled elegance Dorothy B Hughes's tense novel is at once an early indictment of a truly toxic masculinity and a twisty page turner with a surprisingly feminist resolution A classic of golden age noir In a Lonely Place also inspired Nicholas Ray's 1950 film of the same name starring Humphrey Bogart

Not My Will Brenda Poinsett, 2013-09-02 As believers we are often reluctant to admit there are things we cannot change We wrestle and struggle to figure out how we can regain control or we try to rationalize and understand why things happened We pray We expect God to change the situation Yet over time when nothing happens we soon find that we have been robbed of our inner peace and joy In Not My Will author Brenda Poinsett shares the life transforming lessons she learned from Jesus prayer life practical lessons that have carried her and others through a range of unchangeable moments Her unique perspective gives readers special encouragement as she answers the question How do you pray about something you can't change In this book regardless of your situation job loss personal limitations terminal illness or even the death of a loved one you can learn how to come to terms with things that can't be changed by looking at Jesus from His baptism to the Cross Specifically Brenda takes an in depth look at the prayer of Jesus Each chapter includes a significant quote that captures the essence of the chapter and sets the tone a reflective exercise for application a sample prayer

The Rural New-Yorker, 1922 People, Land and Time Brian Roberts, Peter Atkins, Ian Simmons, 2014-05-12 This major new text provides an introduction to the interaction of culture and society with the landscape and environment It offers a broad based view of this theme by drawing upon the varied traditions of landscape interpretation from the traditional cultural geography of scholars such as Carl Sauer to the new cultural geography which has emerged in the 1990s The book comprises three major interwoven strands First fundamental factors such as environmental change and population pressure are addressed in order to sketch the contextual variables of landscapes production Second the evolution of the humanised landscape is discussed in terms of processes such as clearing wood the impact of agriculture the creation of urban industrial complexes and is also treated in historical periods such as the pre industrial the modern and the post modern From this we can see the cultural and economic signatures of human societies at different times and places Finally examples of landscape types are selected in order to illustrate the ways in which landscape both represents and participates in social change The authors use a wide range of source material ranging from place names and pollen diagrams to literature and heritage monuments Superbly illustrated throughout it is essential reading for first year undergraduates studying historical geography human geography cultural geography or landscape history Tippecanoe Mary Van Hogel Truesdell,1840 Zoraida, or, the Witch of Naumkeag Egbert Augustus Cowslip,1845 Zoraida Benjamin Barker,1845 Outlines of the Life and Public Services, Civil and Military, of William Henry Harrison Caleb Cushing,1840 I, Circe | Theological Volume 2 Eureka Circe,2025 The Idler ,1907 The Book of Marriage Hermann Graf von Keyserling,1926 The Book of Marriage Hermann Alexander graf von Keyserling,1926 Alone Thirteen O'Clock Press,2016-03-21 Alone is one of the most evocative words we as humans can speak or write The talented Thirteen writers really delved into this theme producing beautiful sad horrific and unforgettable stories Be alone for a while with this collection let it enter your mind Praying the Gospels with Fr. Mitch Pacwa Fr. Mitch Pacwa, S.J.,2015-04-01 Fr Mitch Pacwa has a gift for opening up the Scriptures and he offers Catholics such a gift in this book of meditations on the beginnings of Jesus public ministry Based on Ignatian principles the thirty nine meditations are meant to help readers use their imagination to enter into the Gospel scene and experience the presence of Jesus From Jesus baptism in the Jordan to his temptation in the desert and the wedding feast at Cana Fr Pacwa provides fascinating background information about the text such as the geography of Palestine and Jewish customs and ideas Then he asks a series of questions that are intended to lead readers into a deeper examination of their own life and mission in the world today William Hobson (1820-1891) Julie M. Anderson,2021-12-24 William Hobson a staunch nineteenth century Quaker minister and determined follower of Jesus Christ was shaped by revival Quaker history and his Friends upbringing As a young adult he left his home state of North Carolina for the Iowa frontier where he honed his God given leadership skills while shepherding the pioneer congregation at Honey Creek After two decades in Iowa Hobson received a mid life call from God to establish a new missions focused Quaker community somewhere on the West Coast Following an extensive search for the perfect location Hobson eventually chose Newberg Oregon and Quaker influence in the region quickly spread culminating in the organization of the Evangelical Friends Church Quakers in the Pacific Northwest Hobson s lifelong determination to follow God continues to serve as a godly example inspiring us to likewise dedicate our lives to God s kingdom purposes Sermons for the Christian Year John Keble,1884 A Cold and Lonely Place Sara J. Henry,2013-11-05 A riveting novel from the author of the critically acclaimed Learning to Swim and an Anthony Award nominee for Best Novel While she s watching the crew build the Winter Carnival ice palace Troy Chance sees a body encased in the frozen lake a man she recognizes as the boyfriend of one of her roommates When she is assigned to write a feature on his life and mysterious death Troy discovers he was the missing son of a wealthy Connecticut family Trying to unravel what brought him to this Adirondack village she joins forces with his girlfriend and his sister who comes to town to find answers

But as Troy digs deeper it's clear someone doesn't want the investigation to continue. And when she uncovers long buried secrets that could shatter the serenity of the small town and many people's lives she'll be forced to decide how far her own loyalties reach. Sara J. Henry brilliantly draws us into a terrifying but ultimately affirmative novel in which love, friendship, and the shining truth about who we really are redeem an otherwise hopeless universe. Howard Frank Mosher, award-winning author of God's Kingdom

Birds of Prey Norman Allison Calkins, Abby Morton Diaz, 1878

Imaginal Memory and the Place of Hiroshima Michael Perlman, 1988-07-08 Hiroshima claims a crucial yet neglected place in the psychic terrain of our individual and collective memories. Drawing on recent work in depth psychology and Jungian thought, this study explores the ancient art of remembering by envisioning places and images that are impressed upon the memory. Enthusiastically used by ancient, medieval, and Renaissance explorers of soul and spirit, the art of memory became a profound expression of striving for cultural reform and an end to religious cruelty. Imaginal Memory and the Place of Hiroshima shows that images arising from the place of Hiroshima reveal with stark exactitude the psychic situation of our world. Specific images are explored that embody unsuspected psychological values beyond their role as reminders of the concrete horror of nuclear war. The process of remembering these images deepens into a commemoration of the fundamental powers at work in the psyche, powers that are critical to the development of a sustained cultural commitment to peace and to the deepening and revitalizing of contemporary psychological life.

Becoming Half Hidden Daniel Merkur, 2014-03-18 First Published in 1993 This study seeks to analyze shamanism and initiation from the perspective of shamans rather than from the laity's point of view. One of the aims of this research has been to get behind the shamans' language in order to understand their experiences.
