| Sample 1  | In the passage below, which comes from William Wordsworth's autobiographical poem The Prelude , the speaker encounters unfamiliar aspects of the natural world. Write an essay in which you trace the speaker's changing responses to his experience and explain how they are conveyed by the poem's diction, imagery, and tone.                                                            |
| Sample 2  | Below is a complete short story. Read it carefully. Then write a well-organized essay in which you analyze the blend of humor, pathos, and the grotesque in the story.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Sample 3  | The following passage is the opening of a novel. Read it carefully. Then write an essay in which you analyze how the speaker conveys her attitude to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Smith , paying special attention to the diction, figurative language, and tone.                                                                                                                                  |
| Sample 4  | The author of the following letter questions the traditional distinctions between comedy and tragedy. Read the passage carefully. Then write a cohesive essay in which you discuss his agreement and disagreement with the definitions of other writers and the literary devices he employs to justify his definitions of the two dramatic forms.                                                  |
| Sample 5  | The passage that follows presents the conversation of a man and woman looking back on forty years of their marriage. Write an essay in which you discuss the differences between the husband's and the wife's attitude toward marriage and the family . Explain how the author uses the resources of language to make a reader more sympathetic to the wife's point of view than to the husband's. |
| Sample 6  | The following passage is the conclusion of Samuel Johnson's "Life of Savage," an account of the eighteenth-century writer Richard Savage, who died in great poverty in 1743. Read the passage carefully. Write a well-organized essay in which you discuss Johnson's evaluation of Savage and the resources of language Johnson employs to communicate his opinions effectively.                   |
| Sample 7  | Read the following poem carefully. Then write a cohesive essay in which you show how the language of each stanza reveals the perceptions and feelings of the speaker.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Sample 8  | Read the following passage carefully. Write an essay in which you discuss how the choice of detail, diction, and syntax are used to reveal the speaker's attitude to Sir Walter Elliot.                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Sample 9  | Read the following poem by Jamaican-born writer Claude McKay carefully. Then write an essay in which you discuss the way in which the author's style (diction, imagery, selection of detail) reveals his feeling about what he recalls and cannot remember about his youth.                                                                                                                               |
| Sample 10 | Read carefully the following passage from Thackeray's Vanity Fair .
