Dear _____:

On April 25, 2012, the Anatomy students at La Serna High School in Whittier are running a Health Fair during the school day for our freshmen students to attend. I am involved with a booth that will educate students about (fill in your booth's topic here). To encourage the students to visit our booth and to remember our information, we would like to give away (fill in the item). My team and I would greatly appreciate your support in the form of a donation.

I would like to request the donation of _____ and/or your monetary sponsorship of this educational event. (If you are asking for a donation of items (indicate a # 80-100) and/or money, provide as much detail as possible to let the potential donor know how the donation will be used.) A tax i.d. number is available upon request.

Thank you for your willingness to assist with this valuable project. (Describe how person/business will be acknowledged for their contributions – sponsorship wall, promotional flyers/ posters, or t-shirts, for example.)

Sincerely,

Medical Consulting by Letter in France, 1665-1789 Robert Weston, 2016-04-29 Ailing seventeenth and eighteenth century French men and women members of their families or their local physician or surgeon could write to high profile physicians and surgeons seeking expert medical advice This study the first full length examination of the practice of consulting by letter provides a cohesive portrayal of some of the widespread ailments of French society in the latter part of the early modern period It explores how and why changes occurred in the relationships between those who sought and those who provided medical advice Previous studies of epistolary medical consulting have limited attention to the output of one or two practitioners but this study uses the consultations of around 100 individual practitioners from the mid seventeenth century to the time of the Revolution to give a broad picture of patients and physicians perceptions of illnesses and how they should be treated on a day to day basis It makes a unique contribution to the history of medicine as no other study has been undertaken in the consulting by letter of surgeons as opposed to physicians It is shown that the well known disputation between physicians and surgeons tells only a part of the history whereas in fact necessity required that these two professions had to work together for the patients good
