Culture of Shame / Culture of Guilt Thomas Schirrmacher, 2018-05-10 Until now theology has hardly paid sufficient attention to the difference between cultures that are primarily guilt oriented and those that are primarily shame oriented. Thomas Schirrmacher's work is noteworthy for the way he informs the reader not only as it relates to missionary theology and activity. It goes on to inform the reader on this important topic as it relates to educational theory ethics and counseling from the points of view of both cultural anthropological and theology. The work demonstrates that a total contrast between shame and guilt orientations does not correspond to the Biblical message nor is it derived from the tradition of the Occident and from churches of Reformation origin. Rather shame was already considered in and integrated into these perspectives. The work is particularly challenging insofar as it calls for closer attention to be paid to the significance of the undisputed differences between shame oriented and guilt oriented cultures for the Christian doctrine of sin and also of reconciliation with God through Christ. Prof Dr Ulrich Eibach Professor for Systematic Theology Bonn Germany Prof Dr theol Dr phil Thomas Schirrmacher PhD ThD DD is professor of the sociology of religion at the State University of the West in Timisoara Romania Distinguished Professor of Global Ethics and International Development at William Carey University in Shillong Meghalaya India as well as president and professor of ethics at Martin Bucer European Theological Seminary and Research Institutes with branches in Bonn Berlin Zurich Innsbruck Prague Istanbul and Sao Paulo.
