Presidential Speechwriting Kurt Ritter, Martin J. Medhurst, 2004-03-15 The rise of the media presidency through radio and television broadcasts has heightened the visibility and importance of presidential speeches in determining the effectiveness and popularity of the President of the United States Not surprisingly this development has also witnessed the rise of professional speechwriters to craft the words the chief executive would address to the nation Yet as this volume of expert analyses graphically demonstrates the reliance of individual presidents on their speechwriters has varied with the rhetorical skill of the officeholder himself his managerial style and his personal attitude toward public speaking The individual chapters here two by former White House speechwriters give fascinating insight into the process and development of presidential speechwriting from Franklin D Roosevelt s administration to Ronald Reagan s Some contributors such as Charles Griffin writing on Eisenhower and Moya Ball on Johnson offer case studies of specific speeches to gain insight into those presidents Other chapters focus on institutional arrangements and personal relationships rhetorical themes characterizing an administration or the relationship between words and policies to shed light on presidential speechwriting The range of presidents covered affords opportunities to examine various factors that make rhetoric successful or not to study alternative organizational arrangements for speechwriters and even to consider the evolution of the rhetorical presidency itself Yet the volume s single focus on speechwriting and the analytic overviews provided by Martin J Medhurst not only bring coherence to the work but also make this book an exemplar of how unity can be achieved from a diversity of approaches Medhurst's introduction of ten myths in the scholarship on presidential speeches and his summary of the enduring issues in the practice of speechwriting pull together the work of individual contributors. At the same time his introduction and conclusion transcend particular presidents by providing generalizations on the role of speechwriting in the modern White House.

Jahankhani, Arshad Jamal, Shaun Lawson, 2021-05-20 This book provides an opportunity for investigators, government officials, systems scientists, strategists, assurance researchers, owners, operators, and maintainers of large, complex, and advanced systems and infrastructures to update their knowledge with the state of best practice in the challenging domains whilst networking with the leading representatives, researchers, and solution providers. Drawing on 12 years of successful events on information security, digital forensics, and cyber crime, the 13th ICGS3 20 conference aims to provide attendees with an information-packed agenda with representatives from across the industry and the globe. The challenges of complexity, rapid pace of change, and risk/opportunity issues associated with modern products, systems, special events, and infrastructures. In an era of unprecedented volatile political and economic environment across the world, computer-based systems face ever more increasing challenges, disputes, and responsibilities, and whilst the Internet has created a global platform for the exchange of ideas, goods, and services, it has also created boundless opportunities for cyber crime. As an increasing number of large organizations and individuals use the Internet and its satellite/mobile technologies, they are increasingly vulnerable to cyber crime threats. It is therefore paramount that the security industry raises its game to combat these threats. Whilst there is a huge adoption of technology and smart home devices, comparably, there is a rise of threat vector in the abuse of the technology in domestic violence inflicted through IoT, too. All these are an issue of global importance as law enforcement agencies all over the world are struggling to cope.

Arcidiacono, 2021-12-06 Confessions of a Presidential Speechwriter Craig R. Smith, 2014-02-01 An avid high school debater and enthusiastic student body president, Craig Smith seemed destined for a life in public service from an early age. As a sought-after speechwriter, Smith had a front-row seat at some of the most important events of the twentieth century: meeting with Robert Kennedy and Richard Nixon, advising Governor Ronald Reagan, writing for President Ford, serving as a campaign manager for a major U.S. senator's reelection campaign, and writing speeches for a contender for the Republican nomination for president. Life in the volatile world of politics wasn't always easy, however, and as a closeted gay man, Smith struggled to reconcile his private and professional lives In this revealing memoir Smith sheds light on what it takes to make it as a speechwriter in a field where the only constant is change While bouncing in and out of the academic world Smith transitions from consultantships with George H W Bush and the Republican caucus of the U S Senate to a position with Chrysler CEO Lee Iacocca When Smith returns to Washington D C as president and founder of the Freedom of Expression Foundation he becomes a leading player on First Amendment issues in the nation s capital Returning at long last to academia Smith finds happiness coming out of the closet and reaping the benefits of a dedicated and highly successful career
