The performing arts enrich our lives and make them better. Art often reflects life, and sometimes points out the good and bad in society. A world without the performing arts would be a sad place.

The performing arts not only entertains us, but makes us think about the important things in life. Imagine a world without dance, music, or theatre. Performing artists express themselves through dancing, singing, playing instruments, and acting. They are able to use their imagination to create something new and exciting. Audiences are told stories through the performing arts, and stories reflect our lives, values, and culture.

As a ballet dancer, I've learned how to discipline myself which is an important life skill. Busy dancers must schedule their time carefully, practice technique, take care of their bodies to keep them healthy, and attend classes and rehearsals.

Our communities are richer because of the performing arts. Dance, music, and theatre entertains us, teaches us life lessons, and enriches our history and culture.
