World Anthropologies in Practice John Gledhill, 2020-06-24 In a post colonial world the contributions of anthropologists living outside North America and Western Europe can no longer be treated as marginal World Anthropologies in Practice demonstrates how global dialogues enable us to draw on local knowledge as well as differences of perspective to help overcome anthropology s eternal struggle against ethnocentrism and to strengthen the subject's relevance to the contemporary world. Based on contributions to the ASA sponsored IUAES World Anthropology Congress in Manchester UK, this truly global book brings together a wide range of international scholars who might otherwise not talk to each other. Featuring articles from leading figures in the field such as Yolanda Moses, Winnie Lem, Carmen Rial, Miriam Grossi, and Cristina Amescua, the volume covers topics as diverse as the mobility of Brazilian football players, toilets in South Africa, trade unions in Nepal and South Africa, peace building in southern Thailand, museological approaches in China, the Great East Japan earthquake and tsunami, immigration and race in the United States, and many more. Edited by John Gledhill, the text offers a much needed insight into the way in which anthropology is developing worldwide and makes a tremendous contribution to the discussion of world anthropologies. An important, timely work for students and researchers.

Transforming Schools for Multilingual Learners Debbie Zacarian, 2022-11-30
Essential principles, practices, and structures for multilingual learners. Much has changed in the ten years since this book was first published. A celebrated triumph, it provided state, district, school, and teacher leaders with a comprehensive guide to support multilingual learners to reach their full potential. From selecting the appropriate program model to partnering with families and infusing federal and state laws governing the education of multilingual learners and the rights of their families into all we do, the key messages that made the first edition of this book a renowned success have been re-examined in the second edition with a robust lens to meet these demanding times. This second edition supports educators to design and enact policies, practices, and structures for multilingual learners (MLs) to feel a sense of safety, belonging, value, and competence. Topics explored in the book include a discussion of the changes to federal and state policies and their impact on MLs and their families; strategies to move from a deficit to an asset-based approach that values multilingualism; nine principles to design and deliver high-quality lessons in multiple languages and across disciplines; practices to identify and support MLs with learning differences and disabilities; steps for building long-lasting family-school partnerships. Reflecting changing trends in leadership, this new edition supports superintendents, principals, curriculum supervisors, coaches, mentors, teachers, and other stakeholders in their collaborative efforts to create and sustain successful language assistance programs.

Scaffolding for Multilingual Learners in Elementary and Secondary Schools Luciana C. de Oliveira, Ruslana Westerlund, 2022-08-24. This insightful and timely volume addresses how scaffolding can be used to support multilingual learners to amplify their opportunities for learning. As a dynamic educational process, scaffolding facilitates responsive and adaptive teaching and learning, addresses students' needs, increases student autonomy, and promotes adaptive, high-level learning without simplifying instruction. Section I covers the theoretical grounding and reconceptualizations of scaffolding. Section II offers concrete examples and case studies from varied classroom contexts. Section III provides a window into professional development to discuss the work of pre-service and in-service teachers and how they develop their understandings and practices of teaching multilingual learners. Contributors address diverse topics including translanguaging in the classroom scaffolding as a tool for equitable teaching virtual learning as well as learning in dual language and content area classrooms Featuring examples from teacher education programs as well as principles for design of educative curriculum materials this book is ideal for pre service teachers and students in TESOL applied linguistics and language education Co-Planning Andrea Honigsfeld, Maria G.
