Pwc Ifrs Pocket Guide 2013:

New Models of Financing and Financial Reporting for European SMEs Eva Kaili, Dimitrios Psarrakis, Raz van Hoinaru, 2019-02-28 This book looks at the 23 million registered Small and Medium Enterprises SMEs that make up 98 per cent of the EU economy Addressing the high end of SMEs in terms of new models for SME funding and financial reporting this merged way of looking at SMEs reveals a myopic thinking in terms of net present value and future cash flows generating short termism and low risk appetite for business This is not an accounting issue but rather a preference toward certain financial tools A segment of SMEs the ones that seek new ways of funding possibilities as well as modern technologies MTFs listing blockchain ICOs etc do require even without knowing IFRS for SMEs This book reveals how market conditions impact the financial performance and sustainability of SMEs and also generate innovative policy interventions and financing strategies for SME integrity and efficiency The authors frame their arguments in the context of the Capital Markets Union looking at the Innovation Triangle SME growth ecosystem and business models They conclude by advocating for closing the circle of financing and financial reporting for SMEs while considering if new financial models of financing and financial reporting are good for all the SMEs or only for some The economy is being shaped by new models of financing and financial reporting Read this practitioners view to understand the current changes and challenges New Trends in Process Control

and Production Management Lenka Štofová, Petra Szaryszová, 2017-09-27 Dynamic economics technological changes increasing pressure from competition and customers to improve manufacturing and services are some of the major challenges to enterprises these days New ways of improving organizational activities and management processes have to be created in order to allow enterprises to manage the seemingly intensifying competitive markets successfully Enterprises apply business optimizing solutions to meet new challenges and conditions But also ensuring effective development for long term competitiveness in a global environment This is necessary for the application of qualitative changes in the industrial policy New Trends in Process Control and Production Management MTS 2017 is the collection of research papers from authors from seven countries around the world They present case studies and empirical research which illustrates the progressive trends in business process management and the drive to achieve enterprise development and sustainability

Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson, Ralph Adler, 2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An international journal
