Discourse, Power, and Resistance Down Under Mark Vicars, Tarquam McKenna, Julie White, 2012-10-26 This edited collection is an eclectic and provocative volume taken from presentations that reflect the scholarship of the inaugural AQR DPR Down Under conference that was held in Cairns in 2011 in Australia This was a ground breaking conference that brought together scholars researchers and practitioners from across Australia UK Japan Italy Finland New Zealand Luxembourg South Africa Vietnam Malaysia Tanzania and Mexico The theme of the conference represented at the conference and in this volume was that of Politicizing Qualitative Research Delegates presented papers that sought to challenge research practices that too often can delegitimize Other ways of knowing Confronting disrupting and resisting the epistemological common sense way of doing research within the academy can be a risky business and is often a fraught and contested endeavor However as the papers in this volume illustrate contestation promises opportunities for re perceiving re interpreting and productively disrupting the orthodoxies of disciplinarity Many thanks to Ignacio Rojas whose patient assistance and expertise as an artist in designing the cover proved invaluable in bringing this book to print

Transforming City Schools Through Art Karen Hutzell, Flavia MC Bastos, Kimberly J. Cosier, 2012 This anthology places art at the center of meaningful urban education reform Providing a fresh perspective contributors describe a positive asset based community development model designed to tap into the teaching learning potential already available in urban settings Rather than focusing on a lack of resources this innovative approach shows teachers how to use the cultural resources at hand to engage students in the processes of critical imaginative investigation Featuring personal narratives that reflect the authors vast experience and passion for teaching art this resource Offers a new vision for urban schools that reflects current directions of urban renewal and transformation Highlights successful models of visual art education for the K 12 classroom Describes meaningful socially concerned teaching practices Includes unit plans a glossary of terms and online resources Contributors include Olivia Gude James Haywood Rolling Jr and Leda Guimar es This terrific much needed resource promises to become a classic in the field Christine Marm Thompson Penn State University A Match on Dry Grass Mark R. Warren, Karen L. Mapp, The Community Organizing and School Reform Project, 2011-07-15 The persistent failure of public schooling in low income communities constitutes one of our nation s most pressing civil rights and social justice issues Many school reformers recognize that poverty racism and a lack of power held by these communities undermine children s education and development but few know what to do about it A Match on Dry Grass argues that community organizing represents a fresh and promising approach to school reform as part of a broader agenda to build power for low income communities and address the profound social inequalities that affect the education of children Based on a comprehensive national study the book presents rich and compelling case studies of prominent organizing efforts in Chicago New York City Los Angeles Denver San Jose and the Mississippi Delta The authors show how organizing groups build the participation and leadership of parents and students so they can become powerful actors in school improvement efforts They also identify promising ways to overcome divisions and create the collaborations between educators and community residents required for deep and sustainable school reform Identifying the key processes that create strong connections between schools and communities Warren Mapp and their collaborators show how community organizing builds powerful relationships that lead to the transformational change necessary to advance educational equity and a robust democracy At the Intersection of Selves and Subject Ellyn Lyle, 2017-08-28 At the Intersection of Selves and Subject Exploring the Curricular Landscape of Identity aims to raise awareness of the inextricability of our teaching and learning selves and the subjects with whom and which we engage By exploring identity at this intersection we invite scholars and practitioners to reconceptualize relationships with students curriculum and their varied contexts Our hope is to encourage authenticity consciousness and criticality that will foster more liberating ways of teaching and learning This collection will be useful for pre and in service teachers teacher educators and educational researchers It is a valuable resource for teacher education courses such as Curriculum Studies Reflexive Practice Philosophy of Education Sociology of Education Teaching Methods Current Issues in Education Collaborative Inquiry and Narrative Inquiry At the Intersection of Selves and Subject lays bare the deepest under layers of the teacher self and subject with new energy The sharing of reflexive inquiries in ethical self consciousness liberates and unwraps queries into pedagogical practice This is an important book for all educators but especially for pre service teachers as they consider or challenge the donning of teacher identity Pauline Sameshima Canada Research Chair in Arts Integrated Studies Lakehead University and Editor in Chief of the Journal of the Canadian Association for Curriculum Studies A pendant of images and texts this collection is a dazzling display of Ellyn Lyle s insight that understanding self is a way to understand other and society That and other affirmations are depicted narratively and theoretically across and within indigeneities singular exceptional identities and paradoxical and inherently political identities This collection invites us to work from within to reconstruct the self professionally This pulsating portrait of juxtapositions teaches transpositions and extricates intertextualities Through resolve we are preserving this fragile someday shared space for being Open this book as entering one such space study what this pendant refracts in you William F Pinar Canada
