Quartet For Strings Op 31 In B Minor:

Analysis of 18th- and 19th-century Musical Works in the Classical Tradition David Beach, Ryan C. McClelland, 2012
Analysis of 18th and 19th Century Musical Works in the Classical Tradition is a textbook for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in music analysis. It outlines a process of analyzing works in the Classical tradition by uncovering the construction of a piece of music: the formal, harmonic, rhythmic, and voice leading organizations as well as its unique features. The text develops an in-depth approach that is applied to works by composers including Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, and Brahms. The book begins with foundational chapters in music theory starting with basic diatonic harmony and progressing rapidly to more advanced topics such as phrase design, phrase expansion, and chromatic harmony. The second part contains analyses of complete musical works and movements. The text features over 150 musical examples including numerous complete annotated scores. Suggested assignments at the end of each chapter guide students in their own musical analysis.

The Chesterian Georges Jean-Aubry, 1921 Percy Grainger Music Collection: Grainger's collection of music by other composers Grainger Museum, Phil Clifford, 1983 Schubert's Beethoven Project John M. Gingerich, 2014-05-22

Why couldn't Schubert get his great C Major Symphony performed? Why was he the first composer to consistently write four movements for his piano sonatas? Since neither Schubert's nor Beethoven's piano sonatas were ever performed in public, who did hear them? Addressing these questions and many others, John M. Gingerich provides a new understanding of Schubert's career and his relationship to Beethoven. Placing the genres of string quartet, symphony, and piano sonata within the cultural context of the 1820s, the book examines how Schubert was building on Beethoven's legacy. Gingerich brings new understandings of how Schubert tried to shape his career to bear on new hermeneutic readings of the works from 1824 to 1828 that share musical and extra-musical preoccupations centering on the Death and the Maiden Quartet and the Cello Quintet, as well as on analyses of the A minor Quartet, the Octet, and of the great C Major Symphony.

Musical Time Barbara R. Barry, 1990. In order for musical structure to be understood and appreciated as coherent design, the raw material must be shaped and clarified by the listener's perceptual processes of selection and organization. Going beyond the boundaries of traditional analytic observation, Barbara Barry explores the concept of experiential time in a specifically musical and philosophic context, delving into the aspects of perceptual process, the interrelationship between subjective and objective perception of musical compositions and performance. A wealth of published experimental findings and writings on music theory and the philosophy of time are cited, accompanied by numerous musical examples here brought together in a supporting interpretation and theoretical exemplification.
