

A detailed stained glass illustration. At the top, a large, pale, horned face with large eyes is set within a circular mosaic of blue and green tiles. Below this, a dark, arched structure resembling a tunnel entrance is framed by a blue border. The word "HOBBS END" is written in white capital letters on a dark blue background within this arch. The entrance itself is a bright yellow rectangle, through which three dark, silhouetted figures are visible. A large, dark, bat-like creature is in the foreground, its wings spread, partially obscuring the entrance. A wide, light blue banner with a decorative scroll border curves across the bottom of the scene. It contains the title "QUATERMASS AND THE PIT" in large, black, serif capital letters, with "AND THE" in smaller letters between "QUATERMASS" and "PIT". Below the title, the author's name "KIM NEWMAN" is written in smaller, black, sans-serif capital letters.
