Question For Citizenship 2014 In Punjabi:

Claiming Citizenship and Nation Aishwarya Pandit, 2021-07-15 The book provides insight into the changing nature of Muslim politics and the ideas of citizenship in independent India. It studies the electoral mobilization of minority groups across North India, particularly in Uttar Pradesh, where Muslims have been demographically dominant in various constituencies. The volume discusses themes such as the making and unmaking of the Congress heartland and the threat of revival of Muslim communalism alongside issues of representation, property, language, politics, rehabilitation, and citizenship. Politics of Waqf, personal law, and Hindu counter mobilization. The author utilizes previously unused government and institutional files, private archives, interviews, and oral resources to address questions central to Indian politics and society. An important intervention, this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of politics, Indian history, minority studies, law, political studies, nationalism, electoral politics, partition studies, political sociology, sociology, and South Asian Studies.

Citizenship, Community and Democracy in India Oliver Godsmark, 2018-01-29 On 1 May 1960, Bombay Province was bifurcated into the two new provinces of Gujarat and Maharashtra amidst scenes of great public fanfare and acclaim. This decision marked the culmination of a lengthy campaign for the creation of Samyukta United Maharashtra in western India, which had first been raised by some Marathi speakers during the interwar years and then persistently demanded by Marathi speaking politicians ever since the mid 1940s. In the context of an impending independence, some of its proponents had envisaged Maharashtra as an autonomous domain encompassing a community of Marathi speakers which would be constructed around exclusivist notions of belonging and majoritarian democratic frames. As a result, linguistic reorganisation was also quickly considered to be a threat posing questions for others about the extent to which they belonged to this imagined space. This book delivers ground-breaking perspectives upon nascent conceptions and workings of citizenship and democracy during the colonial/postcolonial transition. It examines how processes of democratisation and provincialisation during the interwar years contributed to demands and concerns and offers a broadened and imaginative outlook on India's partition. Drawing upon a novel body of archival research, the book ultimately suggests Pakistan might also be considered as just one paradigmatic example of a range of coterminous calls for regional autonomy and statehood informed by a majoritarian democratic logic that had an extensive contemporary circulation. It will be of interest to academics in the fields of South Asian history in general and the Partition in particular, as well as to those interested in British colonialism and postcolonial studies.

The Transnationalized Social Question Thomas Faist, 2019 The social question is back. Yet today's social question is not primarily between labour and capital as it was in the nineteenth century and throughout much of the twentieth. The contemporary social question is located at the interstices between the global South and the global North. It finds its expression in movements of people seeking a better life or fleeing unsustainable social, political, economic, and ecological conditions. It is transnationalized not only because migrants and their significant others entertain ties across the borders of national states staying in touch with family and friends receiving or sending financial remittances in transnational social spaces Also of importance are cross border recruitment schemes for workers and the cross border diffusion of norms appealed to in the case of migration for example the social right to decent work as a human right Moreover migration can become an issue of inclusion or exclusion in fields important to life chances in the emigration transit or immigration states a transnationalization of national states And as in the nineteenth century political conflicts arise constituting the social question as a public concern In earlier periods class differences dominated conflicts While class has always been criss crossed by manifold heterogeneities not least of all cultural ones around ethnicity religion and language it is these latter heterogeneities that have sharpened in situations of immigration and emigration over the past decades Casting a wide net in terms of conceptual and empirical scope this book tackles both the social structure and the politics of social inequalities It sets a comprehensive agenda for research which also includes the public role of social scientists in dealing with the transnationalized social question Changing on the Fly Courtney Szto,2020-10-16 Hockey and multiculturalism are often noted as defining features of Canadian culture yet rarely are we forced to question the relationship and tensions between these two social constructs This book seeks to inject more color into hockey s historically white dominated narratives by amplifying the voices of South Asian hockey participants Uncertain citizenship Anne-Marie Fortier,2021-04-13 Uncertainty is central to the governance of citizenship but in ways that erase even deny this uncertainty This book investigates uncertain citizenship from the unique vantage point of citizenisation twenty first century integration and naturalisation measures that make and unmake citizens and migrants while indefinitely holding many applicants for citizenship in what Fortier calls the waiting room of citizenship Fortier s distinctive theory of citizenisation foregrounds how the full achievement of citizenship is a promise that is always deferred if migrants and citizens are continuously citizenised so too are they migratised Citizenisation and migratisation are intimately linked within the structures of racial governmentality that enables the citizenship of racially minoritised citizens to be questioned and that casts them as perpetual migrants Drawing on multi sited fieldwork with migrants applying for citizenship or settlement and with intermediaries of the state tasked with implementing citizenisation measures and policies Fortier brings life to the waiting room of citizenship giving rich empirical backing to her original theoretical claims Scrutinising life in the waiting room enables Fortier to analyse how citizenship takes place takes time and takes hold in ways that conform exceed and confound frames of reference laid out in both citizenisation policies and taken for granted understandings of the citizen and the migrant Uncertain Citizenship s nuanced account of the social and institutional function of citizenisation and migratisation offers its readers a grasp of the array of racial inequalities that citizenisation produces and reproduces while providing theoretical and empirical tools to address these inequalities India Migration Report 2024 S Irudaya Rajan,2024-08-20 India Migration Report 2024 Indians in Canada is one of the first volumes to comprehensively examine and analyse the different facets of Indian migration to Canada This volume Examines the comprehensive history of Indian migration to Canada including the story of social cultural economic and political integration analysis of socio economic characteristics and evolving political scenarios surrounding student migration and diasporas Presents an overview of migration and post migration experiences of Indian immigrant and Indo Canadian women and the rising trend of high skilled Indian female migration to Canada Discusses the influence of Canadian immigration policy and its effects on the changing immigration patterns of Indians to Canada Examines the challenges faced by Indian immigrants and Indo Canadians due to deeply entrenched Eurocentric and Ethnocentric biases and the impact of COVID 19 on the community Explores the effect of adult children s migration on the health and suffering from disability of elderly left behind in the migration process The book also discusses leveraging migration for international development The book will be of interest to scholars students researchers or anyone interested in migration and diasporic studies development studies the politics of migration immigration policy social anthropology economics and sociology

The Subject of the Nation and his 'Others' in Hindi Cinema MK Raghavendra,2025-09-17 This book analyzes the representations of the subjects of Hindi cinema as a way of gaining insights into the hegemony of the upper caste Hindu male in narratives of nationhood Given that Hindi cinema has narrativized the nation after 1947 the book examines how these subjects were chosen and argues that they were upper caste Hindu and predominantly male The author s analysis shows asymmetries in the constitution of the imagined nation in the public consciousness Women the marginalized categories and minorities were presented as others with separate stories for the issues dealing with them but distinct from that of the nation Stories centered on women primarily highlight their position within society In this context the book argues that it is the male protagonist whose story mirrors that of the nation as allegory A novel contribution to the field of Bollywood Studies this insightful work will be of interest to those studying Hindi cinema and film studies political science and history as well as gender studies

The Paradoxes of Indian American Complicity Kavitha Koshy,2022-10-17 In The Paradoxes of Indian American Complicity On the Racial Sidelines Kavitha Koshy offers a timely exploration of Indian immigrant racialization at the turn of the twenty first century This book is a call to action for an anti racist decolonial practice among differentially racialized peoples The findings of the research uncover the paradoxes of claiming deracialized neoliberal identities while engaging in racial contestation benefiting from selective immigration while occupying a racialized human capital labor slot in global capitalism and experiencing racialized otherness through everyday racism despite proximity to whiteness Koshy develops a typology of Indian immigrant racialized subjectivity amid anti Blackness whiteness caste ness Islamophobia forever foreignness and neoliberal logic
