Questions For Writing An Autobiography:

Writing the Radical Memoir Paul Williams, Shelley Davidow, 2023-05-18 For those that have mastered the basics of memoir and wish to probe this brand of creative nonfiction further Writing the Radical Memoir uses salient theories about memory and the self to challenge assumptions about how we remember and tell the truth of our lives when we write about it Innovative in approach and making new critical ideas accessible each chapter maps out the key principles of such writers as Barthes Lacan Derrida Lewis Mehl Madrona Philippe Le Jeune and Joseph Campbell invokes literary examples to show how other writers have mastered the idea before reflecting on how you can practically apply the theory to your writing With original exercises and prompts for further reading that bridge the gap between the theoretical and how it might be put into practice the book is attentive to the multiple facets of the genre of nonfiction writing generally covering such topics as The writer reader contract How to embark on a thematic symbolic exploration of themes and incidents in your life How neuro scientific theory can inform our understanding of memory and recall and what happens to our memories when we remember them Character development and the ethics of writing about real people How constructing your identity in memoir offers a chance to push back against traditional structures That memoir might not be preservation of your past but a process of self erasure How J M Coetzee's Autobiography trilogy challenges traditional biography By bringing together lived experience post structuralist and postmodernist theories praxis and artistic vision as a unique approach to writing memoir this book encourages you to think the self how it is portrayed created erased and made strange through the process of writing and remembering

Selves in Question Judith Lutge Coullie, Stephan Meyer, Thengani H. Ngwenya, Thomas Olver, 2006-05-31 Wide ranging and engaging Selves in Question considers the various ways in which auto biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocution and that its status and representation are always in question The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture geo political locations social positions cultures languages generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages Afrikaans English Xhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Yiddish An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies Interviewees
