This has led to concerns that newly qualified nurses are no longer being equipped with the necessary expertise to fulfil their professional role. A number of different institutions in the UK have responded to this challenge. Bringing together some of their experiences, this book focuses on the central issues concerned with planning, implementing and evaluating clinical skills teaching and learning. Anatomy and Physiology for the Manual Therapies Andrew Kuntzman, Gerard J. The book follows the campaign design process step by step. It covers every stage from selecting theoretical models and identifying the message and target audience right through to running the campaign and evaluating its success. Real-life examples of actual campaigns are used throughout to show how theoretical ideas work in practice. Working on Health Communication is ideal for students.
