Rhapsody Of Realities December 2011 Edition:

Powered by Faith Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga, 2018-11-30 This book investigates the impact of Pentecostalism on the participation of women in business in Harare Zimbabwe Chapters in this volume trace the history of women's participation in business and highlight how Pentecostalism serves as a major motivating factor The central argument is that there is a way in which selected women's businesses are powered by the Spirit Contributors to the volume utilize case studies of selected Pentecostal churches and ministries to highlight how the religious ideologies of these churches galvanize them to engage in business They also draw patterns of similarity and difference across the different Pentecostal churches The volume demonstrates how Pentecostalism both facilitates and militates against women's participation in business concerning a specific setting in Zimbabwe

Sensational Piety Murtala Ibrahim, 2022-08-11 Grounded in anthropological comparison and the concept of materiality this book offers an in depth ethnographic study of the similarities and differences among various forms of religious practices in a Pentecostal Church Christ Embassy and an Islamic group NASFAT in the Nigerian capital of Abuja Scholarship in this area tends to focus on inter religious contestations and conflicts however this book proposes that another dynamic is unfolding between Christians and Muslims that is characterised by conviviality interfaith joint action programmes mutual influences and even the exchange of religious forms The comparative approach reveals that notwithstanding the seemingly opposed worldviews and divergences between Muslims and Christians they all face similar challenges and apply similar techniques for meeting the challenges posed by the precarious Nigerian urban environment It is through practices especially those conducted in semi public settings that people from different religious persuasions define encroach on and feel the weight of each other's presence

Invoking God Mehr A. Kalami, 2025-08-04 The main theme of this literary work examines avarice insatiable greed and abysmal voracity of those individuals who under the guise of serving God serve their own vested interest This documented book exposes such people who achieve almost everything to fill their coffers and to vent their hatred through deceit and the obfuscation of the public It is a known fact that the majority of the televangelists commenced life modestly most of them devoid of any academic erudition in theology but with some certification from unrecognized seminaries spread throughout the country wherever they reside What captivated my interest in writing this book is the unscrupulous methods that such people have employed to accumulate unjustified immense wealth and properties just through the art of obfuscation deceit and false promises of invoking God to heal the sick and dying for a fee a fee that would leave them unhealed and poverty stricken

Teaching Postwar Japanese Fiction Alex Bates, 2023-01-17 As Japan moved from the devastation of 1945 to the economic security that survived even the boom and bust of the 1980s and 1990s its literature came to embrace new subjects and styles and to reflect on the nation's changing relationship to other Asian countries and to the West This volume will help instructors introduce students to novels short stories and manga that confront postwar Japanese experiences including the suffering caused by the atomic bombings of

Hiroshima and Nagasaki the echoes of Japan's colonialism and imperialism new ways of thinking about Japanese identity and about minorities such as the zainichi Koreans changes in family structures and environmental disasters Essays provide context for understanding the particularity of postwar Japanese literature its place in world literature and its connections to the Japanese past

With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl, 2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9/11 U.S. this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo-Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U.S. neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self-determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U.S. wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community

Žižek and Performance B. Chow, A. Mangold, 2014-10-17 The first edited volume to examine philosopher Slavoj Žižek's influence on and his relevance for theatre and performance studies Featuring a brand new essay from Žižek himself this is an indispensable contribution to the emerging field of Performance Philosophy

The Healing Power of Hip Hop Raphael Travis Jr., 2015-12-14 Using the latest research real world examples and a new theory of healthy development this book explains Hip Hop culture's ongoing role in helping Black youths to live long healthy and productive lives In The Healing Power of Hip Hop Raphael Travis Jr. offers a passionate look into existing tensions aligned with Hip Hop and demonstrates the beneficial quality it can have empowering its audience His unique perspective takes Hip Hop out of the negative light and shows readers how Hip Hop has benefited the Black community Organized to first examine the social and historical framing of Hip Hop culture and Black experiences in the United States the remainder of the book is dedicated to elaborating on consistent themes of excellence and well-being in Hip Hop and examining evidence of new ambassadors of Hip Hop culture across professional disciplines The author uses research-informed language and structures to help the reader fully understand how Hip Hop creates more pathways to health and learning for youth and communities

Revenge Capitalism Max Haiven, 2020-05-20 Capitalism is in a profound state of crisis Beyond the mere dispassionate cruelty of ordinary structural violence it appears today as a global system bent on reckless economic revenge its expression found in mass incarceration climate chaos unpayable debt pharmaceutical violence and the relentless degradation of common life In Revenge Capitalism Max Haiven argues that this economic vengeance helps us explain the culture and politics of revenge we see in society more broadly Moving from the history of colonialism and its continuing effects today he examines the opioid crisis in the US the growth of surplus populations worldwide and unpacks the central paradigm of unpayable debts both as reparations owed and as a methodology of oppression Revenge Capitalism offers no easy answers but is a powerful call to the radical imagination Rhapsody of Realities ,2022
