English for Professional and Academic Purposes Miguel F. Ruiz-Garrido,Juan Carlos Palmer,Inmaculada Fortanet-Gómez,2010 English in academic and professional settings has received great attention over the last 50 years as its use has become a key asset for anyone interested in improving his her chances of communicating internationally However it still offers rich opportunities for teachers and researchers working on English in specific settings The aim of English for Professional and Academic Purposes is to offer an overview of several topics within the field of discourse analysis applied to English in academic and professional domains The book compiles contributions from different origins ranging from Japan to the USA and several European countries and covers English as a native second foreign and international language It also deals with various specialities including academic writing business discourse or English for medicine nursing maritime industry and science and engineering This volume is divided into three sections Discourse Analysis of English for Academic Purposes Professional English and EPAP Pedagogy since it was conceived as a contribution to the research on how English is analysed as both the discourse of and for effective communication in academic and professional settings and how it can be applied to teaching This manuscript offers some fresh insights for those involved or interested in this field of expertise in an attempt to shed some light on its latest innovations GRE Answers to the Real Essay Questions Mark Alan Stewart,2009 With just a few minutes to analyze organize outline and compose your essay responses you need all the preparation you can get before test day GRE Answers to the Real Essay Questions provides sample responses from more than 200 actual GRE essay questions along with a comprehensive review of what test graders expect from your writing Resources in Education ,1997 Chinese Rhetoric and Writing Andy Kirkpatrick,Zhichang Xu,2012-03-07 Andy Kirkpatrick and and Zhichang Xu offer a response to the argument that Chinese students academic writing in English is influenced by culturally nuanced rhetorical baggage that is uniquely Chinese and hard to eradicate Noting that this argument draws from an essentially monolingual and Anglo centric view of writing they point out that the rapid growth in the use of English worldwide calls for a radical reassessment of what English is in today s world The result is a book that provides teachers of writing and in particular those involved in the teaching of English academic writing to Chinese students an introduction to key stages in the development of Chinese rhetoric a wide ranging field with a history of several thousand years Understanding this important rhetorical tradition provides a strong foundation for assessing and responding to the writing of this growing group of students Focus on Evaluation and Measurement ,1992 A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte,Neil Nakadate,Roger Dennis Cherry,1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L Kinneavy s firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing
