

How to Raise the "Perfect" Child

Advice from one Perfect Mother to Another

Don't ever show appreciation when your child helps out around the house, or they'll think it's not expected and become lazy. (Nobody pats me on the back for doing dishes.)

Compare your children constantly to others so they'll learn what you expect from them. (This way they'll get to see clearly what you value, and who they should strive to be!)

Remember also to notice and frequently point out their weaknesses, so they'll learn what they need to improve upon. (We could all use a personal coach like that - don't you think?)

Rarely recognize their unique strengths or gifts, or it will inflate their egos. (Besides, they can always be smarter, more athletic, or more interesting. There's always room for improvement! Why should they be "good enough" - when they can be better?)

Always prompt them to say "Thank you" when they receive something. (After all, we all know that it doesn't matter if they feel grateful, as long as they are being polite!)

Whatever you do, don't acknowledge your kids' angry or upset feelings, or their tantrums will just continue for longer and will get worse. No one likes a scene. (This one might take some time, but eventually, your children will learn to bottle up their negative feelings appropriately, like you!)

Make sure they hug and kiss all the relatives hello and goodbye at get togethers, so they learn that family comes first. (Besides, we don't have to worry about gut instincts or personal boundaries with relatives - they always have our childrens' best interests in mind, don't they.)

Make them clean their plate at every meal, so they get all the right nutrition to grow. (Be persistent with this and soon their stubborn internal body cues will be silenced in the name of health!)

Don't allow your children to express ideas that differ from the family's values, so they learn that home is a peaceful place, full of lighthearted discussion. (What is a family if not a place for individual sacrifice?)

Accept nothing less than complete and utter obedience, so they will always listen to future authority figures - no matter what they are asked to do. (Don't you think a little fear is healthy?)

Above all, only let them make inconsequential choices from a young age, so they grow up understanding that YOU always know what's best for them. (You'll always be around after all!)

Follow all my advice and you will have the PERFECT CHILD!
(And don't fret, these tough days of parenting will fly right by!)

You won't believe how soon your children will become teenagers who are dying to move out, or even deciding to have their own sweet, and "perfect" babies!)

Perfect Child Imperfect:

The Dream of the Perfect Child Joan Rothschild, 2005 A feminist critique of bioethics and attitudes toward reproductive technologies The Confident Child Terri Apter, 2012-02-06 A renowned social psychologist's clear cut thoughtful and practical strategy for parents who want to promote self confidence in their child Raising confident motivated and caring children is a parent's greatest challenge Drawing on her own extensive research on children and parents Terri Apter has created a guide based on emotional coaching learning to respond appropriately to a child's feelings that helps parents raise children to solve problems to be socially active and understand others and to manage emotions all of which are crucial to developing confidence and functioning successfully in society Hugely insightful reassuring and accessible The Confident Child is a truly necessary parenting guide Winner of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International Educator's Award Idolising Children Daniel Donahoo, 2007 Obsessed with our own youth and wanting perfect genius children who live in a world of designer clothes and toys it's time for us to find new ways of parenting and a new kind of childhood With humour insight and emotion Daniel Donahoo reflects on the place of children in our society by looking at everything from fertility rates childcare the role of the media and the day to day joys and challenges of being a parent Donahoo argues that idolising is a form of worship that adversely affects our children's development in their early years and creates citizens who no longer understand their roles and responsibilities It makes parents feel unnecessarily guilty and anxious Without blame or finger pointing Idolising Children examines how we arrived here and looks at what needs to change so that communities as a whole are responsible for raising children Book jacket Raising a Secure Child Kent Hoffman, Glen Cooper, Bert Powell, 2017-02-06 Today's parents are constantly pressured to be perfect But in striving to do everything right we risk missing what children really need for lifelong emotional security Now the simple powerful Circle of Security parenting strategies that Kent Hoffman Glen Cooper and Bert Powell have taught thousands of families are available in self help form for the first time You will learn How to balance nurturing and protectiveness with promoting your child's independence What emotional needs a toddler or older child may be expressing through difficult behavior How your own upbringing affects your parenting style and what you can do about it Filled with vivid stories and unique practical tools this book puts the keys to healthy attachment within everyone's reach self understanding flexibility and the willingness to make and learn from mistakes Self assessment checklists can be downloaded and printed for ease of use For the Love of Children Ted Peters, 1996-01-01 Examines the ethics of new reproductive technologies The Purpose of Everything W Gregory Hallman, 2012-07-19 Wouldn't you just love to truly understand the purpose of your life along with that of everyone and everything else in existence This is not as difficult to realize as some believe We only need to openly resolve a few fundamental questions from a big picture perspective Then understanding the purpose of everything will become more a matter of common sense than such a great mystery These are the basic questions Did we merely evolve or were we created If we were created why were we created If we were created by God whose god from which religion is the genuine God Can we know with absolute certainty that particular God is real Why would any factual God allow bad things to happen to so many good people And can we know with certainty whether theres an afterlife We all instinctively contemplate these questions either consciously or subconsciously so we must resolve them to understand who we are and our place in the grand scheme of things Lets settle these issues once and for all
