D. David Lapakko Ph. D., David Lapakko, 2009-10 Argumentation Critical Thinking in Action 2nd ed explores a wide variety of issues and concepts connected to making arguments responding to the arguments of others and using good critical thinking skills to analyze persuasive communication Key topics include the nature of claims evidence and reasoning common fallacies in reasoning traits associated with good critical thinking how language is used strategically in argument ways to organize an argumentative case how to refute an opposing argument or case cultural dimensions of argument and ways to make a better impression either orally or in writing Willingness to Communicate in Instructed Second Language Acquisition Anna Mystkowska-Wiertelak, Mirosław Pawlak, 2017-02-17 This book offers a comprehensive account of individual differences variables as well as contextual factors that impinge on second language learners willingness to communicate WTC Firstly it adopts a macro perspective on WTC which entails an attempt to identify variables that are related to WTC taking into account the specificity of the Polish higher education setting Secondly it embraces a micro perspective on WTC striving to pinpoint the individual and contextual influences on levels of WTC in the course of regularly scheduled naturally occurring English classes as well as to capture the dynamic nature of WTC during such classes Together these perspectives bring the reader closer to understanding the mechanisms underlying WTC in specific contexts thereby providing a basis for recommendations for classroom practice that could translate into learners success It will be of interest to second language acquisition researchers and students as well as to methodologists and materials writers who can use the research findings to improve the practice of teaching and learning speaking in the language classroom The Affective Dimension in Second Language Acquisition Danuta Gabryś-Barker, Joanna

Bielska,2013-05-03 Affectivity is at the core of everything we do in life Thus its development is also central to learning acquisition and is important for educational contexts The studies presented in this volume consider the different contexts of language learning and examine different types of participants in this process Most of them look at a formal instruction context while others look beyond the classroom and even report on the author s own affectivity and its involvement in learning experiences Affectivity is discussed here in relation to learners but also to teachers in their own professional contexts of teaching foreign languages In the majority of cases affectivity is explored in the case of bilinguals but there are also articles which focus on multilingual language users and their affectivity as an evolving factor Issues in Psychology and Psychiatry Research and Practice: 2011 Edition ,2012-01-09 Issues in Psychology and Psychiatry Research and Practice 2011 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions eBook that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Psychology and Psychiatry Research and Practice The editors have built Issues in Psychology and Psychiatry Research and Practice 2011 Edition on the vast information databases of ScholarlyNews You can expect the information about Psychology and Psychiatry Research and Practice in this eBook to be deeper than what you can access anywhere else as well as consistently reliable authoritative informed and relevant The content of Issues in Psychology and Psychiatry Research and Practice 2011 Edition has been produced by the world s leading scientists engineers analysts research institutions and companies All of the content is from peer reviewed sources and all of it is written assembled and edited by the editors at ScholarlyEditions and available exclusively from us You now have a source you can cite with authority confidence and credibility More information is available at <http://www.ScholarlyEditions.com> Encyclopedia of the Sciences of Learning Norbert M. Seel,2011-10-05 Over the past century educational psychologists and researchers have posited many theories to explain how individuals learn i e how they acquire organize and deploy knowledge and skills The 20th century can be considered the century of psychology on learning and related fields of interest such as motivation cognition metacognition etc and it is fascinating to see the various mainstreams of learning remembered and forgotten over the 20th century and note that basic assumptions of early theories survived several paradigm shifts of psychology and epistemology Beyond folk psychology and its naive theories of learning psychological learning theories can be grouped into some basic categories such as behaviorist learning theories connectionist learning theories cognitive learning theories constructivist learning theories and social learning theories Learning theories are not limited to psychology and related fields of interest but rather we can find the topic of learning in various disciplines such as philosophy and epistemology education information science biology and as a result of the emergence of computer technologies especially also in the field of computer sciences and artificial intelligence As a consequence machine learning struck a chord in the 1980s and became an important field of the learning sciences in general As the learning sciences became more specialized and complex the various fields of interest were widely spread and separated from each other as a consequence even presently there is no comprehensive overview of the sciences of learning or the central theoretical concepts and vocabulary on which researchers rely The Encyclopedia of the Sciences of Learning provides an up to date broad and authoritative coverage of the specific terms mostly used in the sciences of learning and its related fields including relevant areas of instruction pedagogy cognitive sciences and especially machine learning and knowledge engineering This modern compendium will be an indispensable source of information for scientists educators engineers and technical staff active in all fields of learning More specifically the Encyclopedia provides fast access to the most relevant theoretical terms provides up to date broad and authoritative coverage of the most important theories within the various fields of the learning sciences and adjacent sciences and communication technologies supplies clear and precise explanations of the theoretical terms cross references to related entries and up to date references to important research and publications The Encyclopedia also contains biographical entries of individuals who have substantially contributed to the sciences of learning the entries are written by a distinguished panel of researchers in the various fields of the learning sciences

Handbook of Social and Evaluation Anxiety H. Leitenberg, 2013-11-11 For a long time I have wanted to put together a book about social and evaluation anxiety Social evaluation anxiety seemed to be a stressful part of so many people's everyday experience It also seemed to be apart of so many of the clinical problems that I worked with Common terms that fit under this rubric include fears of rejection humiliation criticism embarrassment ridicule failure and abandonment Examples of social and evaluation anxiety include shyness social inhibition social timidity public speaking anxiety feelings of self consciousness and awkwardness in social situations test anxiety performance anxiety in sports theater dance or music shame guilt separation anxiety social withdrawal procrastination and fear of job interviews or job evaluations of asking someone out of not making a good impression or of appearing stupid foolish or physically unattractive In its extreme form social anxiety is a behavior disorder in its own right social phobia This involves not only feelings of anxiety but also avoidance and withdrawal from social situations in which scrutiny and negative evaluation are anticipated Social evaluation anxiety also plays a role in other clinical disorders For example people with agoraphobia are afraid of having a panic attack in public in part because they fear making a spectacle of themselves Moreover even their dominant terrors of going crazy or having a heart attack seem to reflect a central concern with social abandonment and isolation

Post-Pandemic Pedagogy Joseph M. Valenzano III, 2021-11-01
 Post Pandemic Pedagogy A Paradigm Shift discusses how the COVID 19 pandemic radically altered teaching and learning for faculty and students alike
 The increased prevalence of video conferencing software for conducting classes fundamentally changed the way in which we teach and seemingly upended many best practices for good pedagogy in the college classroom Whether it was the reflection over surveillance software or the increased mental health demands of the pandemic on teachers and students or the completely reshaped ways in which classes and co curricular experiences were delivered the pandemic year represented an opportunity for one of the largest shifts in our understanding of good pedagogy unlike any experienced in the modern era This edited collection explores what we thought we knew about a variety of teaching ideas how the pandemic changed our approach to them and proposes ways in which some of the adjustments made to accommodate the pandemic will remain for years to come Scholars of communication pedagogy and education will find this book particularly interesting

Intercultural Communicative Competence and Individual Differences Judit Dombi, 2021-02-19
 This book presents a concise critical overview of the literature on intercultural communicative competence ICC and offers insights into research on this concept As a novel contribution to the field the book frames ICC in relation to other learner variables such as motivation willingness to communicate communication apprehension and self perceived communication competence Based on empirical data the study proposes and tests a model of English majors ICC interacting with individual differences related to L2 communication The findings highlight that students beliefs about their own performance their apprehension from communication situations and their language learning motivation were successfully integrated into a new model of intercultural communicative competence as understood in an interactional EFL
 context
