ECRM2014-Proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich, Dr Anne Brown, 2014-06-16     The New Art of Old Public Science Communication Miira B. Hill, 2022-03-30 This book investigates the phenomenon of science communication events as spectacles for legitimising and communicating science to the public. With attention to events such as Science Slam where scientists are asked to present their knowledge in new ways and speak to an audience of laymen, the author examines the participants' use of stylistic devices borrowed from other events in order to address a diverse audience in a competitive environment. With attention to the performative appearance of scientists on stage and the manner in which contemporary public performing scientists present, problematise and communicate knowledge, the author considers the justifications offered by participants in terms of legitimacy and expectations. Illustrating the crucial role of bodies, techniques, visuals and objects in the communicative construction of scientific reality, The New Art of Old Public Science Communication sheds new light on the construction of improved science communication. As such, it will appeal to social scientists with interests in science communication, the sociology of science and technology and the sociology of knowledge.     THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, 1885     International Teaching and Learning Settings in the Academic Professionalisation of Adult Education Monika Staab, 2023 Academic education plays an important role in the development of professionalism of adult educators. Given the interconnectedness of adult education with global and international developments, this international and comparative study illustrates the need for a systematic and comprehensive internationalisation of adult education programmes and the relevance of international teaching and learning settings for the development of professionalism in adult education. Based on focus group and graduate interviews of three master's programmes with a focus on adult education at the Universities of Würzburg, Belgrade and Florence, similarities and differences in the internationalisation of the programmes are revealed and supporting factors for the development of professionalism are highlighted.     Global Order Beyond Law Thomas Dietz, 2014-12-01 Well-functioning contract law is a crucial prerequisite for economic development. However, even though international trade has increased enormously in recent decades, we still know little about the contract enforcement mechanisms that exist in today's globalised markets. The aim of this work is to shed light on the governance of complex cross-border contracts by developing a comprehensive theoretical framework for understanding the relevance of both formal and informal institutions. This framework is then applied to an empirical study of cross-border software development contracts. Combining a unique data set of 41 qualitative expert interviews with statistical data and surveys, the author demonstrates that state contract laws show fundamental signs of dysfunction across borders. Companies engaged in globalised exchange therefore rarely use this mechanism. Even the European Union's supranational enforcement order is in practice insignificant. Against all expectations, international commercial arbitration also turns out to be limited in its ability to provide a workable legal infrastructure for global commerce With global trade lacking a reliable formal legal order companies have reacted by creating their own informal governance structures This book explains how complex exchange in global markets has emerged in the absence of a global legal order      Electronic Participation Sara Hofmann,Lieselot Danneels,Roel Dobbe,Anna-Sophie Novak,Peter Parycek,Gerhard Schwabe,Vera Spitzer,Jolien Ubacht,2025-09-24 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th IFIP WG 8.5 International Conference on Electronic Participation ePart 2025 held in Krems Austria during August 31 September 4 2025 The 21 full papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 116 submissions The papers were organized in topical sections as follows Foundations and Frameworks of eParticipation AI and Algorithmic Systems in Public Administration Governance Collaboration and Policy Alignment Local Practices Implementation and Innovation Digital Services Usability and Citizen Interaction      Individual and Organizational Vulnerability and Resilience Factors in the COVID-19 Pandemic Barbara Hildegard Juen,Eva-Maria Kern,Sigridur Thormar,2023-10-23 Vulnerability and resilience are concepts that have long been treated as individual and contradicting topics In recent times we have seen that vulnerabilities and resilience can go hand in hand and that vulnerabilities cannot be conceptualized only in simple terms because intersectionality must be considered as well as social organizational and systemic aspects and processes One example is that women are more vulnerable higher values in nearly all stress related measures in the COVID 19 pandemic This finding has to be analyzed from an intersectional perspective because socio economic factors cultural factors exposure to COVID 19 and the type of occupation e g healthcare sector frontline workers play an important role in how vulnerable or resilient women can be in a given society The large number of studies on COVID 19 vulnerabilities makes it necessary to take a closer look at the resilience factors that often go hand in hand with potential vulnerabilities As we see in the literature about pandemics in general and COVID 19 there are some individual organizational and systemic vulnerabilities that can be found in all pandemics From that we can assume that there will be resilience factors within the same concepts that may buffer vulnerabilities      Publications ,1904      Bulletin Philippines.
